Purpose defeated Mrs. Sheldon reminded the co-ordinator she was on the committee in order to represent the people of Speyside and if her voice was not to be heard, her purpose defeated. Mr. Cooper, in turn, told her he would speak to Glen Gray, program co-ordinator for Halton Hills, concerning the matter. He was especially concerned because the school in question does not have a swimming pool for the swimming portion of the program. Georgetown is, at present, offering a gymnastic pro-gram for girls of all ages. The recreation department of the town is planning on offering a similar program for six weeks this summer for girls eight to 13. The program is for those who are genuinely interested in furthering their gymnastic abilities. Mr. Cooper would like to see the program, or workshop, in Acton for the benefit of the girls here. However, a two week trial period would be introduced to see how many turn out.

Included in the program, if carried through, would be swimming, tennis, yogu, gymnastics (extensive). ballet and crafts.

The idea of the workshop went over well with the committee members.

Mrs. Sheldon pointed out that boys have everything in the way of sports, but girls have nothing. Her daughter in taking the Georgetown gymnastic program and benefiting greatly from it.
