

Pet of the week

SKIPPY IS THE pet of Kathleen Nolan (right) and is like any other two year old dog except he is deaf. He has had this handicap since birth, but it does not discourage him from being playful. He is a Pomeranian dog and has been with the Nolan family on Jeffrey Ave. since he was born. Kathleen's friend Lisa Thomas, (left), also enjoys playing with Skippy.

Legion Notes

By Gary Dawkins

By Gary Dawkins
There was a good turnout Saturday Evening for the weekly dance. Couples danced and enjoyed themselves to the music of the Reflections. If you haven't been out to one of our dances we hope to see you soon. Next week the dance will feature Bob and Cori.

Draws
Norm Price, who works hard to assure the success of the Draw of the Month, reports the following winners for April: Ken Dowling first for $249, H.R. Webster second for $166 and S. Turkosz received $20 for selling the winning ticket.

There were no winners last week in the Daily Membership Draw. Names drawn during the week but not qualifying for a win were: A. Cormier, R. McMillan, V. Elliott, C. Harrison, B. Cooksey, and J. Pavil.

Donna and John Krapek coordinated the weekly mixed euchre in the Games Room on Saturday. P. Hurley, B. Green, and F. Shultis picked out the prizes for the ladies while A. Perry, A. Green, and D. Matheson were the lucky winners for the men.

Sports
The Industrial Dart League completed another successful year this past week. Congratulations are in order to the Heads for winning the playoffs. Also in line for

Controversy passes

Make teachers responsible

Golfers out

The strong stand against censorship of books being used in Halton Region Schools was supported by Halton Board of Education Thursday night.

The board passed a resolution that would allow any student to read an alternate book or take an alternate course if material is considered offensive. By the same token the board motion indicates that books won't be removed because they are objected to by a parent or student.

John Bolch, Superintendent of Program for the Board, indicated the removal of books could deprive other students of material in which they are interested. He argued that what is offensive to one person isn't necessarily offensive to another.

Okay booklists
Under the terms of the motion drafted by Mr. Bolch the responsibility for selection of books falls to the teacher of the course. Booklists have to be approved by the board. A list of books will come before the board at a meeting this spring.

The board rejected a motion that would have simply received Mr. Bolch's report. A subsequent motion to support Mr. Bolch's suggested procedure governing objections to a book was passed by the board.
