

SATURDAY MORNING the tennis courts were all filled as temperatures climbed and more seasonable sunshine prevailed. Peter Marks played an early-season match with John Kavanagh. A tennis club is being organized.

JOHN KAVANAGH returns a ball sent over the net by Peter Marks Saturday morning.

THE THREE tennis courts were filled with eager players early Saturday morning. Here Vic Morris returns a ball to his wife Joan. An executive for the new tennis club will be chosen soon.

KIM McCRISTALL shows early form at the midget girls' first softball practice Saturday in the park.

STRIKE ONE for Sue Lehn of R.R. 1, Acton, who's at bat. Catcher is Karen Vander Eyken. Midget softball team of 14 girls held their first practice Saturday.

CONCENTRATION is the key for Kim Vander Eyken at the girls' softball practice.

Spring things

Temperatures are rising and out come crocuses, robins, fishermen, tennis buffs, ball players, bazaar-goers — and town men to sweep the streets.

DONNY BROUILLARD, Clayton Oakley and Rick Dwyer spent Saturday, the opening of fishing season, at Fairy Lake.

THERE WERE hats for all tastes at the big bonanza sale in Ballinamad hall last Saturday. Trying on some of the spring bonnets of other years are Donna and Dale Robinson and Jane Trueman. The sale was held by the community hall board to raise funds.

READY TO SELL their baking are C.G.I.T. members and leaders Bobby Nessett, Nancy Patterson, Gail Lidkea, Debbie Murchison and Judy Pink. The C.G.I.T. sale was Saturday in the church basement. Winner of the doll draw was Mrs. A. Kachmar, a teacher at the Robert Little school who lives in Georgetown.

MRS. Holmes and Edith Medland purchase cream pies and bread at St. Alban's parish hall bazaar held Saturday afternoon. Mrs. W. Denny worked behind the table of baked goods which highlighted the bazaar. Tea was served.