

Murder trial on

Manfred Baron of R.R. 2, Acton and Rywa Wertman of Toronto are being tried on a charge of conspiring together and with others to murder her husband. The trial is in Toronto.

Police searched the Baron property on Highway 7 east of Acton for remains of the body of Mr. Wertman.

Proclaim May family month

Halton Hills council proclaimed the month of May "Family Unity Month", at their meeting, last week.

Councillor Ernie Sykes said the request came to him from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, who are sponsoring the month in conjunction with many other churches throughout Ontario. He said it was an attempt to improve the quality of life. He explained Premier Bill Davis has passed a similar proclamation.

Councillor Joe Hurst opposed the motion.

An advertisement proclaiming Family Unity Month appears elsewhere in this newspaper.

George Currie dies at home

Former Esquesing reeve and Halton Warden, George Currie was found dead at his home in the Ashgrove area late Tuesday afternoon. He was 84 years of age.

Well known across the region and province for his outspoken views and dry wit, Mr. Currie retired as reeve of Esquesing in 1970 and was succeeded by present Halton Hills mayor Tom Hill.

He was reeve of Esquesing from 1932 to 1937, 1949 to 1951, 1957 to 1959 and from 1968 to 1970.

George Currie was the only man to be Warden of Halton County twice. He also ran unsuccessfully for the Ontario Legislature.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete at press time.

Ask extend holding bylaw

The town of Halton Hills is applying to the Ontario Municipal Board for an extension of Esquesing's holding bylaw.

The bylaw prevents any change in land use until the official plan is in force.

Cars get damage

There were two minor collisions in town the past week.

On May 7 at the liquor store parking lot a car driven by Robert Turkosz, 129 Main N., was struck by an unknown vehicle. The left front was damaged.

On May 9 at Queen and Longfield two cars were in collision. Driver Elizabeth Allonby 203 Mason Blvd., had $250 damage to her car and Kent Kentner, R. R. 3, Acton, $100 to his.

Police investigated.

Y clean-up

Large cans of new paint stacked neatly inside doors of the Y these days, plus freshly painted walls in the basement, indicate industry has already begun. Soon visitors will be surprised at the results. Front hallway is next improvement on the clean-up agenda.

Jump

Circulation of the Free Press at Speyside took a big jump last week with the introduction of a Speyside news column.

Open air

One entire half of the arena roof is exposed as work there progresses this week.
