Minor soccer clubs open in new H-P rural league

Acton's atom "A" team split their first two games in the new rural division of the Halton-Peel Minor Soccer League.

The atom "A's" blanked Fergus 2-0, but later lost 2-1 to the same club. Simon Ager scored the first Acton goal in the 2-0 win on a fine pass from Gary Lumbers. The second goal resulted from another first class passing play between Lumbers and David Mitchell, with Gary scoring this time. Dana Turas played an outstanding game in goal to keep Fergus forwards off the scoresheet.

Coach Lumbers is pleased with his team's play to date, but is constantly reminding his players that teamwork pays dividends. Acton's atom "B" side has dropped two games to Pineview 10-0 and 4-1. The 4-1 score did not indicate the play in that game. George Gidman performed well on the forward line for Acton. Louis Graedyk and Robert Allen were sharp on defence. On the forward line Matthew Wakein and Ronnie Rauwerda improve with every game.

The Acton bantam club, which plays in the Halton-Peel minor bantam league has improved since its opening game 9-0 defeat at the hands of Oakville. The bantams edged Milton 3-2 for their first win and gave a fine Burlington side a real battle Monday night, before bowing 4-2.

Jeff Shields scored his second goal of the season, while Peter Debenham notched the other for Acton in Monday's game. Outstanding on defence for the locals were Gordie Bruce and John Hogenbirk.
