Minor soccer

Bantams win a pair in exhibition soccer

With no Halton-Peel league games last week, Acton bantams chalked up a pair of minor soccer exhibition victories over Pineview and Georgetown.

Phil Renforth scored a hat trick, Kevin Weir added a pair of goals and Lee Robinson one in the 6-1 win over Pineview. Although he didn't score, David Drinkwater played a very fine game.

Against the Georgetown team Acton triumphed 5-2, with Anthony Quinn scoring twice and Kevin Weir, Gordie Bruce and Phil Renforth each connecting once. Henry Kroezen and Fred Allen both played well.

Campbellville

Campbellville Seniors called out their heavy artillery for the first time this year to pound out a 14-3 win over a rather inept Cambridge Pirates team.

After trouncing Omagh 11-3 in their league bid last, the atoms absorbed a shattering defeat, 12-1 at the hands of Glen Williams. Against Omagh Friday night the Acton boys lost 9-2.
