

WROUGHT IRON arch, given by Acton Women's Institute, was repaired and back in its old place for the services on Sunday. It had been hit by a truck and was repaired at a cost of over $300. It originally graced the old entrance to the cemetery off Main S.

MRS. VERA INGLIS was one of the volunteers who planted geraniums after the Decoration Day service. Cross indicates a Legion member, the flag a member of a participating organization.

MARY WATSON is a young veteran of Acton Citizens' band and rarely misses concerts or parades. She knew Sunday's route well.

LEGION CHORALIERS led in the singing at the service of remembrance in the cemetery Sunday afternoon. Participating clergy are the Rev. Eric Nelson, the Rev. Andrew McKenzie, the Rev. Das Sydney. Organizer the Rev. Ewing is ill.

LEGION LADIES' Auxiliary members plant red geraniums beside Canadian flags in Fairview cemetery. Pioneer and Dublin cemeteries were decorated too, and the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E. planted two new trees.

LEGION COLOR party is headed by Ted LeBlanc. Bill Nicolak was parade marshal for the Decoration Day parade.
