ATHLETE OF the year awards for Acton High were presented to two of the younger participants in the athletic program. Rick Van Fleet a grade 10 student and Karen Chapman a grade nine student garnered the trophies at the banquet Thursday evening.

Junior students earn high athletic awards

Rick Van Fleet and Karen Chapman were named the outstanding male and female athletes of the year at the Acton high school athletic banquet held at Knox Presbyterian church Thursday evening. Over 140 school athletes consumed a roast beef and potato dinner and received praise for their participation in the school's athletic program. This was the first athletic banquet in eight years. Intramural and representative team members garnered flashes and trophies were presented to the most valuable players of the rep teams. The school's two highest athletic awards are made to students capable of participation in both individual and team sports with some degree of success, who also exhibit a sportmanlike attitude and make a contribution to the school's intramural program.

The Curling Club trophy was awarded to the team of Jeff Gardner, Don Harding, Sandra Hickling and Todd Comber. The outstanding in cross country trophy was presented to Frank Houston and to the most valuable player in junior girls basketball, Susan Thompson, went a trophy. The junior girls completed the season with 11 wins and one defeat. Paul Bowen was chosen the most valuable in midget boys basketball and Brian Larsen the same for junior boys. The Bill Spehar Memorial trophy was presented to David Galbraith. The trophy is presented annually to the student who makes the greatest contribution to the athletic program. Intramural awards went to the Blue house, being hailed champions, and the Yellow house, for attendance awards. There were a total of 2428 individual entries in intramural activities this year according to school athletic officials.

OVER A DOZEN award winners accepted 16 trophies at the Acton High annual athletic banquet, the first in seven years. The athletics program this year was deemed successful by school officials. Accomplished athletes awarded trophies are, Maureen Gerth, Rob Inscoc, Paul Bowen, Brian Larsen, Sue Thompson, Frank Houston, Tammy Beeler, Debbie Rippon, David Hannah, Mike McGregor, Karen Van Der Eyken, Rick Van Fleet, Karen Chapman, and David Galbraith.

Selects move to second place tie

Brookville Selects chalked up two wins in the Southern Ontario Junior Ladies' Softball League last week. The Selects trounced Grimsby 6-2 Monday night and triumphed 6-4 over Brantford the next night. Kim Henderson was the batting star of the win over Grimsby. On defence Deb Wilson pulled off some near impossible catches of line drives at shortstop. Sandra Inglis was steady as usual at second and Deb Manes did a fine job, playing first base for the first time. In spite of an injured leg, Kathy Rusk turned in a good effort behind the plate. Winning pitcher Sue Thomson yielded very few base hits to Grimsby batters. Sue Thomson hurled the first six innings of Tuesday's game, then took relief in the seventh from Deb Wilson, who showed promise in her first turn pitching. Kathy Rusk played her best game as a catcher, although she was still on the limp. Sue McCallum pulled off the defensive gem of the evening, when she hauled in a long hard fly on the dead run with the bases loaded. Brookville hitting was well-balanced. Selects are now tied for second place in the standings.

Maureen Gerth was awarded the outstanding track and field trophy and Tammy Beeler the outstanding female gymnast trophy. Outstanding female and male swimming awards went to Debbie Rippon and David Hannah. Mike McGregor and Karen VanDerEyken were awarded the most improved athlete awards.

MACKENZIE BUILDALL 75th ANNIVERSARY

Helping build the Acton and Georgetown area for 3/4 of a century

In seventy-five years the Mackenzies have left their mark on schools, commercial buildings and homes throughout the Acton, Georgetown area.

If you grew up in Acton or Georgetown you've probably already seen, experienced and even shared many of the physical changes that the Mackenzie family have helped create. Aren't sure? Just look around you. Chances are most of the familiar old homes you've seen week in and week out... the schools you attended and downtown buildings you walked by every day were constructed, remodelled or added to by the Mackenzies during the last 75 years.

In our ad last week we told you a little about how 24 year old John Mackenzie back in 1900 embarked upon a family enterprise that would span 3 generations. A colorful example of the Mackenzie determination to succeed is depicted in the 1906 story; when the sub-contractors responsible for the placing of the large Acton Post Office clock were having some difficulty. John Mackenzie came on the scene and offered to do the job with ingenuity. John was able to raise and set the new clock into position by using a series of pulleys and ropes hitched into his Model "T". John Mackenzie was not just a supplier of building materials. He was a doer. His son Sam and grandson Sandy who have carried on the family business are doers, too.

As we've already pointed out... throughout Acton and Georgetown are example after example of residential and commercial buildings built, added to and renovated by the J. B. Mackenzie and Son Lumber Company.

Yes, the Mackenzies have left their mark on Georgetown and Acton. Shown and mentioned here are only a small sampling of the building the Mackenzies have done in the past 75 years. Forty odd years ago they put out a catalogue that described their contracting business thusly... "CONTRACTORS. It can readily be seen that combining all divisions of the building business in one, we are able to build Quality Buildings at Low Cost. We are prepared to erect complete, any type of building you may require. We would point out to you the many buildings we have erected during the past twenty-five years. Estimates cheerfully furnished on any building proposal you may have in mind." A lot of people probably found this advertisement convincing. Even more responded to John Mackenzie's profound business philosophy: "A deal isn't a good one unless it works for the two people concerned." The Mackenzies carry on this philosophy today.

If you're near our Acton or Georgetown stores during June, (while we celebrate our 75th anniversary) please drop in. Let's talk over old times, or new projects. We'd like to work with you, to help keep building this entire area.
