Double ring ceremony for French - Kirkwood

Ruth Elaine Kirkwood, and Wayne Wesley French were united in marriage at Trinity United Church in Acton on May 24.

Ruth is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kirkwood, R.R. 4, Acton, and Wayne is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Reg French of Ballinafad.

Rev. Eric Nelson officiated at the double ring ceremony, with George Elliott as organist. Friends of the bride and groom, Janice Swackhamer, and Steve Marshall sang Follow Me, a song written by John Denver. They were accompanied by Elizabeth Cooper playing the piano, and Mike Cooper on guitar.

Bridal gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length empire style gown of chiffon and crepe with lace trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with babies breath. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Linda Osborne as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thelma Pettipher, Mrs. Lois Henderson, and Mrs. Marilyn Cox, all sisters of the bride, and Debby and Cathy

Pot luck supper wind-up

The final meeting of the Trinity Activity Group was held Tuesday evening at Jean Johnson's home. The meeting began with a delicious pot luck supper which was enjoyed by all. Following the supper, president Dianne Butler conducted a brief business meeting during which elections for office next year were held.

Elections
Dianne Butler was re-elected president. Program co-ordinators are Marion Patterson and Susan Sale. Dorothy Rognavaldson was elected treasurer and Catherine McGillivray, secretary.

The meeting night for next season was set for the third Thursday of each month. On September 18th the T.A.G. will meet at Marion Patterson's home. All new members are welcome.

Busy week

Police reported they had a busier week than usual, during the past reporting period.

Liquor

During the week police laid several liquor charges—four charges of being intoxicated in public, three liquor seizures and one charge of minor consuming.

Bittorf - McDowell vows honeymoon in Ottawa

The Rev. W. Eric Nelson officiated at the wedding ceremony of Jane Christine McDowell to David Henry Bittorf, at Trinity United Church, Acton, on May 24.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Telford McDowell, 30 Raylawn Cres., Georgetown, and is an employee of the Anthes Business Forms, Brampton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bittorf, 188 Main Street North, Acton, and is employed by Bell Canada, Guelph.

The Wedding Prayer and Walk Hand in Hand With Me were sung by Mrs. Jean Hancock while George Elliott played the organ during the double ring ceremony.

Bridesmaids
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long Spanish-styled silk gown with the bodice trimmed with lace and sequins and floor length matching train under a long white veil trimmed with lace. The bride's headpiece was a silk and sequin flower arrangement. She wore pearl earrings, a gift from the groom, and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and babies breath.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bonnie Winfield, Georgetown. The flowergirl was Michelle Timmerman, Guelph, cousin of bride. The two were attired in long gowns of white eyelet lace over yellow taffeta with white accessories. The matron of honor wore a yellow floppy hat and the flowergirl wore small yellow flowers in her hair.

Sisters of the bride and of the groom, Miss Sharon McDowell, Georgetown, and Miss Pat Bittorf, Acton were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of white eyelet lace over pink taffeta with white accessories, and pink floppy hats.

All the bridal attendants carried cascades of pink, yellow and white carnations and babies breath.

Robert Bittorf was his brother's bestman. Two friends of the groom, David Pink and John Last, were the ushers.

Reception
A dinner and dance followed the ceremonies at St. George's Anglican Hall, Georgetown, where the bride's mother received wearing a long gown of pale blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother received wearing a rose gown with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Special guests at the wedding were the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, Acton and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. Ingles, Acton.

Guests came from Georgetown, Elora, Guelph, Kitchener, Acton, Norval, Milton, Dundalk, New Dundee, and Burlington.

Showers
Prior to her marriage, the bride was guest of honor at a combined personal and linen shower held by Bonnie Winfield and Gail McDowell; a miscellaneous shower held by Pat Bittorf; a pantry shower held by fellow employees of her place of business; and a trousseau tea held by her mother.

After returning from a honeymoon in Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Bittorf are living at 24 Ransom St., Acton.
