Mrs. Evelyn Near, Mrs. Jack Dennis, Mrs. Eileen McEnery, Mrs. Edna Shortill and Mrs. Rita Shortill visited Halton Manor last Friday and enjoyed the last day of Senior Citizen's week. Eileen helped again with piano music for the sing-song.

Church service on Sunday was 11.30 as usual. The minister spoke on the scripture lesson of Amos, five, and second, Peter. His sermon stressed our moral obligation to carry on in the Canadian tradition which began 108 years ago. Services in July will continue and the minister, the Rev. Siles, will be on holidays in August. Dick Shortill is in Guelph General hospital for surgery. The Erin District high school reunion last weekend drew large crowds of former students into the area from many places in Canada.

Ospringle

Teaching staff honor secretary

By Doris Flies Grade six pupils of Ospringle school had a going-away party on the last day, after school hours. They played games outside and in the gym and enjoyed Kentucky Fried chicken, cake and ice-cream for lunch. Public school ended last Tuesday, but the teachers stayed on, sorting papers and books, until Friday. Then they left too, and silence reigned.

Pupils from 20 years back had received invitations. They gathered together to renew old acquaintances.

Danny and Linda O'Connor, Paul and Donna Metcalfe, Gayle and Neil Baldwin were among those on the organizing committee planning the event. They were gratified at the response of those who attended. Four hundred registered on Saturday; 200 sat down Sunday night to a supper served in the arena.

Guests came from Toronto, Sudbury, Kapuskasing, Wainwright, B.C. and many other distant places as well as Georgetown and Acton areas. One student who had attended Erin high school in 1902, came up to Canada for the celebration from Indiana. He was the oldest student attending and was well received.

all the staff went out to dinner in Hillsburgh. A cameo brooch was presented to the secretary Mrs. Margaret Bell, who will begin her new duties at Erin Elementary in September. Mr. Lorne Brown expressed regret at her leaving after six years of efficient work at Ospringle.

Clarence Denny and his school bus drivers took a trip to Midland, where they enjoyed a cruise to Honey Harbour on the "Miss Midland" cruise boat. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce have returned from a ten-day trip to Quebec and the Maritimes. They report lovely scenery and perfect weather. They visited cousins at Port Perry, Blackstock and Nestleton, and attended a church service in the United Church at O'Leary, P.E.I. School reunion A number of young people returned home for the weekend so they could join in the reunion at Erin District high school.

Dr. Barry Bruce, Dr. Carol Bruce, and son Michael, of Carp, and Garnet Bruce of Oakville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce. Gary Ferguson of Hamilton spent the week-end at the

Acton man . . .

Mr. Baron and the woman were lovers, and became engaged before Mr. Wertman's death. He was 23 at the time of the murder.

The deceased's body was found on the Baron farm just outside of Acton. Mr. Baron confessed to clubbing Mr. Wertman over the head in his home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce of Hamilton and Brenda Bruce of Woodstock visited with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bruce and Bradley.

Brenda Bruce is now employed in the lab of Western Breeders Association at Woodstock.

Toronto apartment, and transporting the body to Acton where the accused set it on fire in a 45-gallon drum. Mr. Baron later retracted his statement and said that he and Mrs. Wertman had driven to her husband's apartment in Toronto. Baron waiting outside, heard gunshots, and later disposed of the body.

Mr. Justice Edson Halnes termed the matter as the almost perfect crime.

Baron, however, let it slip to the police of his connection in the matter. While the police were investigating one spot, Baron told them they would not find it there. Police became suspicious and investigated Baron.
