Unusual meeting for local Institute

Mrs. Wallace Lasby, Nassagaweya, was hostess for the July meeting of the Dublin Women's Institute last Thursday evening. It was the annual picnic meeting of the organization, and tables were set under the lovely old trees on the lawn. The program was reversed for the night, and "O Canada", usually sang at the closing of the meeting, was sung, and the courtesies were expressed by Mrs. Willard Britton. Everyone enjoyed the meal which consisted of a fine variety of foods.

Games and contests were enjoyed after on the lawn, with winners being Mrs. H. Beasley, Mrs. M. Diamond, Miss C. Lasby, Miss T. McCarron, Mrs. D. Hunter and Mrs. E. Wilson.

Following the sports program under the direction of the Entertainment Committee, composed of Mrs. N. Douglas, Mrs. J. Vandenberg and Mrs. C. Armstrong, the ladies went into the house for the business meeting.

Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. L. M. Hillman, who in a very pleasing and informative speech, told of the work of the North Halton Mentally Retarded Association. Sixty-eight volunteers look after the pupils at Tinkerbell Nursery at various times, who are mentally and physically handicapped. The Adult Rehabilitation Centre (ARC) is also under the jurisdiction of the Association. Mention was made of the proposed home on Steeles Avenue which it is hoped soon will be constructed. It will accommodate fifteen residents.

Mrs. M. Hunter thanked Mrs. Hillman for the insight and information she had given to the ladies.

Mrs. M. Nellis and Mrs. C. Armstrong will look after the arranging of the exhibit at Acton Fall Fair.

While the program was on, several ladies who had entered a darning contest were busy plying their needles to see who could make the neatest "darn". Later, Mrs. M. Nellis and Mrs. M. Diamond were judged the winners with the best work.

Roll call

Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. N. Douglas, who called the roll, "Say, sing, pay or play". It was answered with various talent numbers by the ladies.

The Lord's Prayer in unison, followed by the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect, and the singing of the Institute Ode followed.

Mrs. E. Norton presided over this unusual program, which was reversed, when the "first was last and the last was first."

Mrs. Lasby and daughter, Cathy, served ice cream cones and cold drinks to the ladies as a welcome close to a very enjoyable evening.
