Busy fall for Oxfam

Plans for several upcoming Oxfam events were made Friday evening, when members of the group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Comfort.

The collection of vegetables to sell to city customers will continue as announced.

In the fall there will be a study session on the government's Green Paper on Immigration. A panel is being set up and the group has high hopes M.P. Dr. Frank Philbrook will be coming to take part. A representative from Toronto Oxfam headquarters is also expected.

Also in the fall the group will have trading fair booths at both Acton and Erin fall fairs. A booth will also be set up for the crafts sale at the Y.

An auction sale of crafts and art is also slated for next fall.
