

Reviews rules about trailers

There are some important regulations for the operation of recreational trailers in Ontario says Cons. Larry Scott of the Milton detachment of the C.P.F. He passes on the following:

Trailer must be registered and licence plate attached on rear of trailer clearly visible and lighted at night.

Lights and reflectors are dependent on the size and style of the trailer.

Rear view mirrors must provide a clear view of the road behind the trailer.

Brakes on trailers with a gross weight (vehicle and load) of 1000 lbs. or more.

Safety chains as a secondary means of attaching the trailer to the towing vehicle, in addition to the hitch.

It is illegal to:

- Haul an insecurely loaded or unsafe trailer.
- Carry passengers in a trailer while it is being towed.
- Haul more than one trailer behind the towing vehicle.

Local skaters in different events

Seven Acton people found a perfect place to beat the heat on the weekend - in an ice skating arena.

Cindy McGilloway and Diane Baginski were competing in competition at the beautiful Nepean arena at Ottawa Saturday. Along with them went Mr. and Mrs. Ed McGilloway, Mr. and Mrs. Mario Baginski and Chrissie. The arena was cool, all right, but because of the terrific heat and humidity outside, annoying fog drifted over the ice throughout the competitions. Sometimes you could only see a skater's feet, sometimes only her top half. It posed a weird problem for the judges. Attempts were made to blow off the fog, but they weren't too successful and no more big fans could be found anywhere that day.

Placings

The Acton girls were very happy with their placings in the pre-novice A class. Cindy came fourth and Diane 10th, out of 36 girls skating in different flights.

Kevin Parker of Brookville area was also a competitor, placing first in his class, which had only two entries. There were skaters from all over Canada and the United States entered. The young Acton girls particularly enjoyed conversing in French with some of the Quebec skaters. It was their first attempt to convey their thoughts in school French to non-English speaking girls. They were soon able to tell each other they admired their costumes and their jumps.

The Baginskys and McGilloways also enjoyed an air-conditioned motel and pool, and seeing the Ottawa sights such as the changing of the guard.

Others skate

Cindy and Diane are not the only two Acton skaters who are spending hot summer days inside cool arenas.

David McGilloway, Charlie and Susie Kinal and Ann Smith are also skating at Lakeshore arena, Toronto, although not all in the same months.

Next special event is August 15, 16 and 17 when Cindy, Diane, David and Ann will compete at The Highlands, Toronto, summer competitions. Diane and Cindy will skate as a pair, as well as singly. For David, 13, it will be his first out-of-town competition.

ROYALTY and their guest took part in the Royal Ball at M. Z. Bennett playground Friday afternoon. King and Queen are Tom Shannon and Patty Dawson, Minister of Refreshment is Tracy Patterson and the Minister of Food is Michael Yalowica. Others are Jennifer Lee, Lynn Graham, Kirt Cherwonik, Michael Batten, Rachel Christensen, Jody Brown, Donna

Ferguson, David Hargrave, Terry Danagher, Danny Gibson, Joanne McArthur, Sean Heptner, Andrew Ferguson, Vince Danagher, Terry Lott, Tina Cherwonik, Norman Cherwonik, Brian Heptner, Kevin Brown, Roberto Luisetto, Bruce Shannon, Gordie McArthur, prince; Lynn McCord, princess.

SANTA CLAUS came south for his vacation this year and dropped into Robert Little playground to talk to the children. At the playground were Tyra McKinnon, Mark McKinnon, Gail Robb, Doreen Robb, Ricky Smith, Mansy McKinnon and leaders Nancy South and Beth McCutcheon.

Ban mini bikes

Motor bikes and mini-bikes will be banned from the Silvercreek Conservation Area next year. Although the Reforestation, Land use and Wildlife Advisory Board of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority has expressed concern over the damage being done to the park by such vehicles, Parks and Recreation Advisory Board declared a lack of funds for fencing forced them to delay fencing until next year.

Have display at Exhibition

The Ontario Electric Railway Historical Association will have a display about their museum in Nassaraweya at the C.N.E. It will be in the new 80-foot diameter geodesic dome, where vehicles will be on display.

C.V.C.A. to acquire $1000 acres in area

The Bruce Trail Association has requested the Credit Valley Conservation Authority purchase a parcel of land north of the Terra Cotta Park, outside conservation acquisition area.

The request occasioned much discussion as members argued the value of the purchase at a recent C.V.C.A. meeting.

"What the hell are we buying property for people to tramp over?" bellowed mayor Tom Hill.

The property in question consists of 100 acres in seven parcels with separate owners.

It was pointed out there were still 1,000 acres of land yet to buy within the C.V.C.A. acquisition area. General Manager Harry Watson stated one piece of property, fronting on 32 Sideroad and 5th Line, had been appraised and an offer made.
