

A TRUCK DRIVEN by Kimberly Break went out of control and eventually came to rest sideways across 25 Sideroad between the 6th and Town Line yesterday evening at 5.13 p.m. She was treated by Milton OPP for cuts and bruises at the scene. When out of control the vehicle reportedly entered onto the northern shoulder, swerved to the southern shoulder, again swerved to miss hitting a hydro pole and overturned.

New books are dribbling in, two or three at a time, and here are some off the best seller list that have arrived in the past two or three weeks. Total Fitness in 30 Minutes a Week by Laurence E. Moorehouse, Ph. D.; Shirley McLaine's You Can Get There from Here: Hydroponics (Growing Plants Without Soil) by Dudley Harris. A new book is The Complete Book of Herbs and Spices by Claire Louwenfeld and Phillipa Back. Dr. Maria Eggs' newest book is on retardation, Educating the Child Who is Different. Here is the newest cook book, Eat Russian by Sofka Skipwith, full of exotic dishes to try. A treat for the folk interest in Scottish tartans is The Tartans of the Scottish Clans by James D. Scarlett, beautifully illustrated. In lighter vein we have quite a number of new fiction, John D. MacDonald's The Dreadful Lemon Sky; Rob Bert Standish's Dabney Reef, a tale of a West Indian sugar island and mixed marriage; Hugh Garner's new murder mystery placed right in Toronto, Death in Don Mills; the Carthian Caper by Jacques Sandulescu and Annie Gottlieb, a very exciting story being really enjoyed by our patrons. The Sub-Killers by San Antonio is being well-read and enjoyed by many. For our science fiction readers there are A Day in The Life, an anthology, also Andromeda Gun, Gomorrah and The Pritcher Miss, a few of our newest in this area. Alice Rogers Hager: Too Near the Sun by Lynn Hall; The Ghost Next Door by Wylly St. John. Two new books about The Little House on the Prairie are by Laura Ingalls Wilder; a Summer at Forty-Five Acres by Alan Wildsmith; Scanaroon by Henry Williamson; Road Race and Lightning on Ice by Phillip Harkin.

—Lists of fall fairs are now available and according to the list the fairs are still a popular part of Ontario life.

DO IT SAFELY

Each summer Canadians take to the water for recreational swimming—millions of us. But each year about 500 people drown as a result of our most dangerous summer sport. This summer, resolve to learn more about water safety. Ask your Red Cross Society or St. John Ambulance for tips on safe swimming, or write the Health Resource Centre, Ontario Ministry of Health, Queen's Park, Toronto, and ask for the free booklet "Get In The Swim".
