

Eden Mills Fun Fair draws record crowd

A record crowd of people walked through the gates of the Eden Mills park Saturday evening to attend the annual Fun Fair.

Delicious hamburgs, a baseball game, fish pond and penny table all contributed with many other games and tables to make the evening a success.

The evening, sponsored by the Eden Mills Community Club, added many new and exciting features this year. Cubs manned the gates and handed out tickets. These young men, a first for the fair, were Robble McGregor, Jeff Masson, David Van Rhijn, Matthew Iutzi, Matthew Holmes, David Johns, Mark Godding and Andy Rat-ky.

Another new item was the penny table. Many handsome prizes decked the table as ticket buyers placed their numbers on selected gifts. Numbers were drawn at the end of the evening with the merchandise going to ticket holders of that particular number.

The famed hamburgs, known throughout the area, were cooked by able chefs Ellwood Snow, Tom Bould, Fred Rinehart and Russel Blacklock.

Something for everyone

A fish pond was a popular spot for young and old alike. Children flocked to the area and received prizes. Everyone won something.

Crown and anchor, darts, penny pitch and hoopla were enjoyed by many, as well as ball toss.

Brownies and guides sold balloons and Mrs. Kay Stevenson sold pay-what-you-will tickets.

The ever popular bingo was a roaring success with many nice prizes to be won for lucky people.

Fifty dozen hamburgs were cooked over glowing charcoal and provided a delicious meal for baseball players and fair visitors.

Organizers of the Fun Fair were quite pleased with the evening, and hope the affair continues to grow in popularity.

THIS WAS ONE that didn't get away on six year old Renette Tarant at the Eden Mills Fun Fair Saturday evening. Renette enjoyed the fish pond and sat between the pussy willows on the straw to retrieve a fish to win a prize.

MRS. ROBERT WRIGHT and her weekend guest Mrs. Howard Vincent of Bracebridge enjoyed the penny table at the Eden Mills Fun Fair Saturday evening.

CHEF TOM BOULD had a hard time getting the fire going under hamburgs Saturday evening at the Eden Mills Fun Fair, and had to resort to waving cardboard over the coals to keep them burning. Once the fire got going, the hamburgs were delicious.

Consider site for senior housing

After lengthy discussions with Sid Kaye of the Ontario Housing Corporation last week, Erin township council passed a motion requesting that a survey be made to determine the need for senior citizens apartments in the township and the village of Hillsburgh combined.

At a meeting with council, Mr. Kaye advised them the survey would take two to four months to complete, a site of not more than five acres and not less than three must be found close to if not in Hillsburgh, to be close to amenities. Two sites are already being considered. The construction of the apartments could start next spring.

Cost

Mr. Kaye told council that 90 per cent of the construction would be financed at federal level, and 10 per cent at provincial.

The only cost to the municipality would be 7 1/2 per cent operating losses. The rest would be absorbed by federal and provincial governments.

Twenty units would each be one bedroom apartments of 460 square feet. The average rent would start at $37 per month and rise according to means, geared to help low income people. That would include hydro, phone, heat, water, everything except television.

A capital cost allowance would be used to furnish a lounge and do some landscaping. Mr. Kaye added that maybe one of the local service clubs would be interested in providing extras such as a TV for the lounge.

Seeks application

M.P. Frank Philbrook met with Erin Township council August 5 to promote the use of Local Initiatives Grants by municipalities as a way to boost winter employment.

There has been concern if the program is worthwhile, Dr. Philbrook said. "We (Continued on page 9)
