

Eden Mills

Top awards at CNE for Hugh McPherson

by Mrs. R. Wright
The Presbyterian Women of Eden Mills Church, held their August meeting Tuesday evening, after a relaxed summer. The hostess was Georgina Wright.
In the absence of the president Mable Lasby, the 1st vice took the chair. Evelyn Barden opened with a hymn and prayer. The secretary's and treasurer's reports followed.
Sick visits were accounted for and a penny collection for the Fellowship of the Least Coin was made, followed by prayer by Wilda MacDougall.
Roll Call was answered with a donation for the fall bazaar with many nice articles turned in. Scripture Reading was by Alma McDonald, John chapter 6. Readings were by Peggy Vanrhijn entitled With God all Things are Possible and Evelyn Barden, The Touring Car.

Alma McDonald conducted a contest on the books of the Bible with three winners, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Kay Stevenson, Wilma Gilbertson and Kathy Vanrhijn.
A fall luncheon will be held on Oct. 29 with bake table and bazaar.
The meeting closed with prayer and a social half hour followed with Alma McDonald and Peggy Vanrhijn providing the delicious lunch.
Kay Stevenson as courtesy convener thanked the hostess and all those who helped to make it a pleasant evening.
Holiday weekend
Mr. and Mrs. William McLean with daughters Betty and Jean and their families spent the holiday weekend at Sauble Beach.
The week previous the families of Mr. and Mrs. McLean celebrated their father's birthday with dinner at the Mohawk Inn Sunday. Sunday guests of Catherine Gilbertson and Sada Gilbertson were Mrs. Ruth Buzza from Burlington also Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Toronto.

CNE wins
Hugh McPherson was successful again at Toronto Exhibition with his fine flock of birds taking ten firsts, six seconds, four thirds, two fourths, and one first Best of Breeds.
These included Golden Pencil Hamburgs, Silver Pencil Hamburgs, Modern Game Pheasant and Japanese dark Greys.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gibson with daughter Caroline and Cindy Jennings have returned home after touring the Georgian Bay area and Manitoulin Island.
Mary Ellen Cann of Eden Mills took part in a concert at Riverside Park, Guelph, doing her Highland dancing.

BEST OF BREED Golden Pencil Hamburg Cockerel sits on the hand of proud owner Hugh McPherson, Eden Mills. Of his 32 birds entered at the C.N.E. Mr. McPherson took home 24 ribbons, 10 of them firsts.

Ballinafad

North and west for vacations

by Mrs. R. Shortill Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. William Reid motored to Pembroke on the holiday weekend. They took Stephen Gordon home. He had been spending a few weeks with his grandmother Mrs. Archie McEnery as well as with other members of the family.
Danny and Mark Shortill accompanied by David Neilsen and Murray Eyre went to Parry Sound for the long weekend. They report good weather.
Many from here attended the sale in Acton Thursday night of a former Ballinafad couple Mr. and Mrs. R. McEnery. They are staying at Maple Lodge now.
Miss Sheila Jamieson spent a few days at home last week. We were talking to her. Sheila has an interesting position in the respiratory department of Toronto General Hospital.

The U.C.W. are making plans for a booth at Lloyd McLean's sale. They have sold their farm. It means another of our pioneer centennial farms given up.
Miss Karen Shortill had to return to Guelph Hospital again for treatment.
New tenants are moving into the Shortill apartment recently vacated.
A number of young people including Nancy and Chris Wallis, Debbie and Kathy French, spent the holiday weekend camping.
Miss Sheryl Morrow spent the weekend with Mrs. R. Shortill and Lillian.

Thirteen gymkhana riders show

Thirteen riders turned out, in spite of the rain, to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnston, Fifth Line, Nassagaweya for the Guelph Pony Club's monthly gymkhana on August 24.
The games day included equitation classes and various jumping and mounting games.
Most of the riders present owned their own horses and were between the ages of ten and 19 years old. A few falls resulted because of the wet slippery grass but no injuries were sustained.

CAROL JONES, with her horse Chico, ignored the rain and drizzle to enjoy themselves at the Guelph Pony Club's gymkhana held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnston, 4th Line, Nassagaweya, on August 23.

New date set for church picnic

The recently baptized babies' parents' names were garbled in last week's paper. They should have read: Alan Keith, son of Sharon and Keith Anderson; Maria Ann, daughter of Lorraine and Doug Black; Kevin Ross, son of Carol and Lloyd Lucas, and Laurie Anne, daughter of Henny and David Ward.
The congregational picnic planned for last Sunday, has been moved forward to September 7, at the home of John Kitching, in hope of better weather.

Rev. R. Finley's sermon dealt with the soul's work being ceaseless, to bring body and mind into unity with itself. The son who wanted to leave home was not heartless and cold to his father; he just wanted to get away on his own. There is restlessness in all of us. The soul begs, "Let's go home, please." We say, "If I were clever, if I had money, etc." The soul doesn't care whether you are rich, brilliant, married or single. When the prodigal son went home, there was no condem-
