Exhibition draws 678 fans

Two infant hockey clubs clashed at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena Sunday afternoon and, for the first period and a half of play the 678 fans, who paid their way in to see the Junior "B" Georgetown Gemina and Major Junior "A" Windsor Spitfires in action were wondering if the clubs hadn't entered the wrong classification by mistake.

Geonitls held a 3-2 lead over their larger and faster opponents as late as the seven minute mark of the second period, before the Spitfires finally unveiled the young talent, which had carried them to two impressive exhibition wins last week. Spitfires who whitewashed the Tier 2 "A" Guelph Biltmores 7-0 last Wednesday night and won 5-3 against the established Major Junior "A" London Knights Saturday, bounced back to win the exhibition 7-3.

Goals by Chris Katsopoulos, Brian Elacott and Mark Perras in the second period and by Jim Heasty and Kevin McAlpine in the third brought Windsor from behind
