

SEVEN-WEEKS-OLD CANDY and Mandy Page, 2, found Acton's three day Fall Fair a good show from their vantage point, especially Candy. Fair officials said 15,000 to 16,000 attended the events, about 10,000 of them on the big day, Saturday.

Kitchener Waterloo Kiwanis Cavaliers Drum and Bugle Corps was one of the two bands marching in the annual parade. The Cavaliers band is only three years old and has taken part in National competitions held this year in Waterloo Ontario.

BROWNIES, BROWNIES and more Brownies marched in the fall fair parade Saturday.

PRETTY GIRLS of the Acton Figure Skating Club were an added attraction in the Fall Fair parade, Saturday.

A GREAT SEAT to watch the parade! Michael Gingras, a five-year-old Mississauga youth, takes in the excitement and color of the annual Acton fall fair parade.
