

ONLY ENTRY in the twins category at the fair are Kendra and Kenneth, 23 months old, children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Webb, Anne Blvd., Milton. All other classes were keenly contested.

BOUNCING for joy, Trevor Aldridge knew there was no doubt he would take home the red ribbon for Class B, boys up to 6 months. He was brought by his mother Mrs. B. Aldridge, Kingham Rd., Acton.

WONDERING just what to do with the first prize ribbon she has won in the Acton Fair Baby Show is Sherry Diana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rooth, Kingham Rd., Acton. She topped the girls up to 6 months class.

70 entries bounce through baby show

At the Acton Fair Baby Show this year, bouncing baby boys (and some did actually bounce across the judge's table) outnumbered the girl babies 44 to 26.

A total of 70 entrants, with mothers in tow, delighted the judges, Margaret Aitken and Kay Mathies for the boys; Betty MacDonald, Chalene Smith and Marion Swackhammer for the girls.

Mrs. Carmela Cobham, organizer of the annual show, said that, in spite of the large number of boys, entries were down from 1974. Last year's total of 79 almost broke the 1972 record of 80.

Ribbons and a coupon giving a 10 percent discount at Toddlers to Teens were presented to all babies. Past-organizer, Mrs. Vivian Beer said a polaroid picture of each entry had also been discussed as a "thank-you" to the families and friends who joined in the long wait for the judges' decision.

Winners

Little Sherry Diana Rooth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Rooth, 60 Kingham Road, Acton charmed the judges to win first prize in Class 1A, girls up to 6 months of age. Runner-up was Theresa Helen Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lindsay, R.R.2, Acton. In Class 1 B, boys up to 6 months of age, the winner was Trevor, son of Mrs. B. Aldridge, 24 Kingham Drive, Acton. Thomas John Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gibson, 50 Churchill Road S., Acton, was in second place.

Two Acton young ladies, Tracy Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Teskey, 121 Elmore Drive, and Trevalyn Michelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Swan, R.R.1, were first and second place prize winners, respectively, in Class 2A, girls 7 to 12 months while a young Limehouse lad, Robbie, son of Mrs. H. Brown of R.R.1 was the winner of Class 2 B, boys 7 to 12 months, followed by Peter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brooks of R.R.2, Acton in second place.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sargent, 238 Elmore Drive, Acton, are the proud parents of the winner of class 3A, girls 13 to 18 months. Her name is Leanna Denise. Christena, daughter of Mrs. P. Roberts, R.R.4 Rockwood was the judges' second choice.

Class 3 B was comprised of boys aged 13 to 18 months. In first and second positions, respectively were Shawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Huelin of Huttonville, and Joseph, son of Mrs. K. Willmott, 67 Cobblehill, Acton.

Twenty-three month-old twins Kenneth and Kendra Webb, children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Webb, 17 Anne Blvd., Milton, won Class 4, twins up to two years of age.

UNABLE TO keep his eyes open any longer, Robbie stayed asleep in the arms of his mother, Mrs. H. Brown of Limehouse, right through the Red Ribbon presentation, boys 7 to 12 months class.

RED RIBBON girl 7 to 12 months is Tracey Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Teskey, Elmore Drive, Acton.

LEANNA, DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sargent, Elmore Drive, Acton, was the best girl 13 to 18 months. Judges found it hard throughout to choose the top two in each class.

RED RIBBON? Yawn! Leanna Sargent isn't really impressed. She placed first in the girls 13 to 18 months category.

DEAD TO the world and not stirring a muscle to impress the judges is Adam Frizzell, brought by father Jim. The family is formerly of Acton, now Milton.

I CAN'T believe I won it! Shawn, brought by mother Mrs. Dave Huelin from Huttonville, topped the boys 13 to 18 months.
