Headliners
"Tinnie" Maaless, secretary of the Beardmore Bowling League, a member of the Lakeview Centre Mixed League and a coach with our Youth Bowling Council banners, is hospitalized in the Queen's Hospital for minor surgery. Makes the first time in twenty years that "Uncle Tinnie" hasn't been on hand to coach the youngsters on a Saturday morn—aspirin tablets were at a premium last Saturday with the Y.B.C. coaches. Yeah, yeah, the Youth Bowling Council got under way and it was farawell to peace and quietness—the sympathy of the Acton Bowling community goes out to "Shorty" (Major) and Industrial-Commercial Leagues' Lewis in the tragic loss of his stepson—the "Mr. and Mrs." league which have openings for married couples—that winds it up once again, my friends, so adios, amigos and goodnite, Concord City.
