Buchanan - Shoemaker wed at bride's home

An early evening ceremony at the home of the bride on August 30 was chosen for the marriage of Susan Elizabeth Shoemaker and Barry James Buchanan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Shoemaker, 55 Mill St., Acton and is a student at Sheridan College. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Buchanan, R. R. 2, Acton. He is a manager at Mackenzie Building, Georgetown.

Following the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Lawrence Dubs, Waterdown, the bride and groom took communion. In place of an organist, recorded music was played including Ode to Joy and selections by the Carpenters and Olivia Newton-John. Debra and Diane Bousfield sang More and We've Only Just Begun. The bride's home was decorated with two candelabra and bouquets of pink and white mums and glads, with pink roses on the mantle.

Bridal gown: Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon gown with soft pink undertone, sweetheart neckline and smocked and beaded cuffs. She wore pearl earrings and necklace. The bride's hairpiece was a flowered headband with waist-length veil. She carried flowers of pink roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honour: the bride's friend, Lynda Sayers, and bridesmaid Nancy Shoemaker, sister of the bride, wore pink polyester crepe dresses with fitted bodice, scoop neck, full skirt and sleeves and a sash waist. They carried white roses. Flowergirl was Stacey Perry, daughter of Don and Anne Perry, R. R. 1, Limehouse, friends of the family. She wore a dress of pink and white Swiss dot, white gloves, and a nosegay of pink and white roses with baby's breath.

Neil Anderson, Burlington, was his friend's bestman. Jerry Buchanan, the groom's brother, was the usher with the bride's cousin Jeffrey Ritchie, Sarnia, as ringbearer.

Reception: At an evening reception at the Acton Music Centre, the mother of the bride wore a turquoise gown and a pink corsage. The groom's mother wore a powder blue gown, also with a pink corsage.

The bride designed and made her own wedding gown. The mother of the bride made the bridesmaid's dress and Dorothy Newton, Guelph, formerly at Acton, made the maid of honour's dress. Mrs. Shoemaker also made the wedding cake which was used by Mrs. Robert Hart.

Prior to her wedding, the bride-elect was guest of honour at four showers. Three miscellaneous parties were held by Mrs. Dorothy Van Wyck, Miss Sherry Douglas and Mrs. Jean Youngblut and Miss Lynda Sayers held a bathroom shower.

Relatives attended from Georgetown, Midland, Victoria Harbour, Mississauga, Owen Sound, Sarnia and Kitchener.

For travelling to Prince Edward County, the bride wore a coral suit with white accessories and gardenia.

Mr and Mrs Buchanan are living in Georgetown.

Many songs sung at Cornell - Strokov wedding

On Saturday May 3, at 3:30 in the afternoon at Churchill Community Church, Erica Lydia Strokov and Raymond Kneale Cornell were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anatoly Strokov of R. R. 2, Acton. The groom is the son of Mrs. Verma Cornell of R. R. 1, Troy.

Rev. A. W. Fosbury officiated the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Donald Anderson, friend of the bride, played the organ.

Musical selection: Prior to the ceremony

Michael Cooper, of Acton, the bride's brother-in-law, sang Cat Stevens' How Can I Tell You and Miss Brenda Burt of Acton, a school chum of the bride sang Walk Hand In Hand. The processionals, the hymn Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven was sung by all at the bride's request. During the ceremony, while the bride and groom were kneeling, God's Kids, a folk group within the church, sang John Denver's Annie's Song. Miss Brenda Burt sang The Gift of Love during the signing of the register.

The bride wore a long white dress, a cape collar falling from the bateau neckline and long sheer sleeves. The collar and bodice were bordered in lace and pearl beads and lace flowers. A lace border also accented the hem and the train of the gown. Her flowers were a single deep pink orchid accented with red roses, stephanotis and green ferns.

The maid of honour was Miss Vera Strokov, the bride's sister. She wore a sleeveless blue dress with a V neckline, empire waist and back tie, a short hooded capelet and three quarter length white gloves. She carried a clutch bouquet of a small pale pink orchid accented with English Ivy and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Givlet, niece of the groom, who wore a pink dress and Miss Michael Cooper, sister of the bride, who wore blue. Their dresses were the same style as the maid of honour's and they also carried clutch bouquets of small pale pink orchids accented with English Ivy and baby's breath.

The flower girl was Miss Lisa Franklin, niece of the groom. She wore a high waisted pink dress with a high neckline and puffed sleeves, a hooded capelet and short white gloves. She carried a heart shaped pillow decorated with a small pale pink orchid accented with stephanotis and English Ivy. The mother of the bride wore a yellow floral dress and a bolero jacket with ruffles bordering the edges of the jacket and the cuffs. The mother of the groom wore a pale blue silk knit dress with long sleeves, with beads decorating the waistband.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Harish Bhatt from Kenya, a fellow student at the University of Guelph, was the best man. Doug Cliff of Dundas and Eric Strokov, the bride's brothers, were the ushers. Donald Anderson made sure that all the guests signed the guest book while his brother David handed out the orders of service. The groomsmen were all dressed in royal blue tuxedos and had tinted blue carnations.

A hot beef dinner was served by the Churchill Community Church Women in the basement of the church, and a dance was held at the Acton Band Hall.

For their trip to the Holiday Inn in Toronto and then to Algonquin Park, the bride wore a pink pant suit with a corsage of mixed sweetheart roses. The groom wore a light blue suit.

Bridal festivities: The bride was the guest of honour at several showers. Mrs. Ray Pedersen of Guelph held a linen shower on March 8 and the girls who lived in residence at the U of Guelph with the bride had a surprise shower for her on March 26. A miscellaneous community shower given by Mrs. Winston Nisbet of Troy was held on April 11, the groom's community. Mrs. Michael Cooper and Mrs. Donald Anderson gave a surprise shower for her on Sat. April 19, at the home of Mrs. D. Anderson, of R. R. 2, Acton. The bride received a letter and gift from her grand mother in Germany and heard from friends in Russia, and Simi, California. Guests in attendance arrived from such places as Brazil, South America, Quebec, P.E.I., Fort Erie, Fenchon Falls, Toronto, Guelph, Dundas, Hamilton, Troy, Kawartha, George Town, Bradford, Prescott, Windsor, Lynden, St. George, Capetown and New Hanover. Mr and Mrs Cornell are both students at the University of Guelph and reside at 10977 Stone Rd., W. Guelph.

ERICA LYDIA Strokov and Raymond Kneale Cornell were married in Churchill Community Church on May 3. They are now living in Guelph where both attend university.

August ceremony for Courtney - McCutcheon

The Rev. Len Ewing officiated at the August 9 double ring wedding ceremony of Nancy Jane McCutcheon and John Frederick Courtney.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCutcheon, 68 Nelson Court, Acton and is a registered nurse at the Guelph General Hospital. The groom is the son of Mrs. and Mrs. Marris Courtney, 341 Westcott St., Acton and is employed by W.C. Wood, Guelph.

St. Alban's church was decorated with yellow and white miniature mums for the ceremony. Mrs. Oakes played the organ while a cousin of the groom Miss Green sang Whither Thou Goest, I will Go, and O Perfect Love.

Bridal Gown: Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta, with chiffon overlay, finger-tip veil and Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow daisies.

Mrs. Fran Nagle, a friend of the bride from Toronto, was the matron of honour. The bride's sister, Beth McCutcheon, Acton, was the bridesmaid. They wore mint green gowns and matching picture hats, and carried baskets of yellow and white baby mums.

Mike Albano was his friend's bestman with Roger Hoggett, another friend, as usher.

Receiving for her daughter at the Acton Meadows Golf course, Mrs. McCutcheon wore a coral crepe gown and a white orchid. The groom's mother received wearing a dark green flowered gown and white orchid.

Showers: Three miscellaneous showers were held for the bride prior to her marriage. The matron of honor held the first one in Toronto for nursing classmates of the bride. A friend, Marion Keelan, held the second shower with the groom's sister holding the third.

A great aunt and uncle attended the wedding from London, England and a girlfriend of the bride from Regina Sask. Other guests attended from North Bay, Fergus, Toronto, Whitby, and Newmarket.

For travelling, the bride wore a beige pant suit with brown accessories and a yellow corsage.

They are now living in Guelph.

ST. ALBAN'S ANGLICAN Church was the scene of the August 9 wedding of Nancy Jane McCutcheon and John Frederick Courtney. The newlyweds are now living in Guelph.

Ceremony on lawn for Given - Unger vows

A pretty outdoor wedding at the bride's parents' cottage was held on August 23 when Jackie Lynn Unger and Brian Douglas Given were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Unger, 10 O'Neil Cres., Trenton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Given, Rockwood.

Douglas Wilson was the officiating minister and Harold McNish the organist and soloist. The lawn was decorated in hanging and potted geraniums and begonias.

Bridal gown: Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an off-white polyester satin gown with a lace overlay and bodice covered with a wide ruffle with lace inset. She wore a bonnet of similar material as the dress, covered with lace. Red and pink roses and carnations decorated the bonnet.

The bride carried an off-white crocheted basket with arrangements of red and pink roses and carnations, white daisies and lily-of-the-valley.

A white crocheted basket with arrangements of flowers matching the bride's basket and the maid of honor's basket sat on the table where the couple signed the register.

Janet Lockner, Ottawa, was the maid of honor wearing an off-white satinet gown with pink and blue rosebuds. She carried an off-white crocheted basket holding pink carnations, white daisies and lily-of-the-valley.

The best man was Dave Cox, Guelph. The bride's brother, Reg Unger and the groom's brother, Brock Given were ushers.

The bride's mother received for her daughter at a reception held in the Harbour Room at the Four Seasons Hotel, Belleville, wearing a pea green gown. The groom's mother wore a yellow taffeta gown with lace.

Honeymoon: For travelling on a honeymoon trip to Prince Edward Island, the bride wore a blue suit and brown accessories.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Ottawa, Blackstock, Rockwood, Guelph, and Belleville. The bride's grandparents from Clearbrook, B.C. also attended.

The newlyweds are living in Rockwood.

MR. AND MRS. Brian Given were married at the bride's parents' cottage on August 23. The bride is the former Jackie Lynn Unger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Unger, 10 O'Neil Cres., Trenton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Given, Rockwood. Don Askest photo.
