

Bazaar, tea raise record sum Sat.

A record sum was raised by the ACW at St. Alban's church at their annual bazaar and tea held in the parish hall on Saturday afternoon.

Inclement weather did not deter the patrons who lined up outside the door prior to the opening at 2 p.m. Guests again had to queue for afternoon tea which was served in the centennial room.

A beautiful arrangement of bronze-toned chrysanthemums, yellow carnations and copper-hued sprays of wheat centered the tea table at which Mrs. Leonard Ewing, Mrs. June Hunter and Mrs. William Denny presided. ACW members assisted the tea convenors, Mrs. Louise Lindsay and Mrs. Bea Anderson, in serving.

The lucky winner of the door prize, a floral-patterned blanket, was Mrs. H. Roszell, while Mrs. Lorna Clarke received the centrepiece raffled at the conclusion of the tea.

Convenors
Mrs. Babs Mitchell convened the white elephant table; Mrs. Mable Donny and Mrs. Mae Fountain, baking; Mrs. Willa Hargrave, sewing.

A fish pond for the children was run by Mrs. Daphne King but perhaps the most popular attraction was the penny sale organized by Mrs. Marie Hargrave. At the end of the successful afternoon, 26 lucky winners received prizes from the penny sale draw. They were Mrs. Dot DeForest, phontex dollie; Mrs. M. Devries, butter and eggs; David Gilbert, coffee and white sugar; Mrs. Dolleen, picture frames; Donna Vanderheyden, ham; Gloria Mason, tie dye batik; Mrs. M. Devries, grocery box; Mrs. Pat Wilson, hair spray; Mrs. Linda Puncheon, plant; Kay Hanson, chocolate filled brandy snifter; June Gerth, candle; Mrs. Fuller, coffee and brown sugar; Betty Gardin, pillowcases; Mrs. Jack McKinney, petit point picture; Mrs. N. Best, fruit cake; Dale Patenaude; crocheted dollie; David Anderson, macrame hanging; Mrs. Doris Ella, vase; Mrs. Rose Fountain, photo album; Lois Gordon, cup and saucer; Joan Papillon, dozen eggs; Mary Elliot, tin of nuts; Brenda Mainprize, stationery; Jean Russell, fudge; Mrs. Daphne King, silver charm.

PENNY SALE and fish pond (in the background) attract a crowd at the A.C.W. bazaar Saturday afternoon. The tea, downstairs in the parish hall, was a highlight.

Members enjoy Hallowe'en party

By Mrs. Emily Price
We hope all the members who are, or who have been plagued with the flu, and other illnesses will soon feel more like participating in our pool program, meetings and social evenings.

Seven of our group went to Guelph on October 28 and took part in the Hallowe'en Party held by Happy Handy Caps and they all reported a really good time was enjoyed. The prize for the funniest costume went to Herb Dodds and from what I have heard, there were some good ones.

We are hoping there will be a good turnout at our next meeting and social evening on November 18, 7.30 p.m. for the social at the firehall to help us welcome guests from Hamilton organizations, as well as groups from Guelph.

Our first social evening was successful, but we need suggestions from everyone to make the evenings even more enjoyable. There are so many entertaining events coming up in the near future and we would like to see more people come out and help us enjoy ourselves.

130th anniversary

Former district clergyman the Rev. Charles Benton was guest preacher at the 130th anniversary of Trinity United church Sunday morning. Some of his former congregations from Ballinafad and Churchill attended the service as well to meet him again.

The choir's two anthems were specially chosen for the occasion. Sing O Heavens by Sir Arthur Sullivan (of Gilbert and Sullivan opera fame) represented the Victorian era of music and took 10 minutes to sing. They Sing A New Song to the Lord by Violet Archer was commissioned for the 50th anniversary of the United Church in Canada and represents the modern church.

Display
A special display of old things was arranged at the front of the church by some of the Nessett family. It included a table with lamp and antique dishes, rocking chair, iron kettle, quilt and other intriguing items.
A social hour followed the service.

Trinity teachers

The second meeting of the Georgetown Trinity Teachers Association was held at the home of new member Mrs. Bonnie Beer Greene.

In the absence of President Mrs. Norine Noble Broomhead, the meeting was jointly chaired by Honorary president Dorothy Richardson Scull, and Vice-president Miss Judi Petherick.

Mrs. Bonnie Greene was elected to replace retiring secretary Mrs. Faye Pink, and plans were made for the Christmas recital.

Reed backs price board

Halton-Burlington MPP Julian Reed and his fellow Liberal caucus members want the minority Tory government to take the inflationary bull by the horns and set up a provincial anti-inflation board.

"We would like to see an anti-inflation board set up in Ontario to cover things which come under provincial jurisdiction like education and the civil service," Reed said in a recent interview.

He said he was pleased to see Ottawa take some initiative in the fight against inflation. "The anti-inflation board is a necessary evil and I'm glad we are now beginning to see some leadership at the federal level."

Several provinces have jumped in to support Ottawa's new anti-inflation plan and Reed believes Ontario should participate.

The Trick or Treat mob enjoy quiet Hallowe'en

Hallowe'en night was unusually quiet this year. In fact police remarked that the town was quieter than on a normal Friday evening.

The youngest children were out shortly after five o'clock delightfully calling at the doors of friends and neighbors. In a few hours the Trick or Treat phase was past for another year. The subdivisions were thick with children, many of whom came from as far as Erin, Georgetown, Milton and Burlington.

Some windows were soaped and some eggs thrown but no damage was reported to police.

Extra help
Halton Board of Education had arranged for checks at the schools and there were no problems.

Extra police were on duty in town and throughout the countryside.

Police had the assistance of about seven people with citizens' band radios. They set up their monitoring set outside the police station and were ready to relay word of any possible pranksters. There were no special parties in town for children. The attendance at the hockey game was not particularly high, either. Many of the children carried UNICEF boxes, picked up at their schools. Boxes were still coming in to organizer Ed Leatherland at M.Z. Tuesday so no firm total of contributions is available yet.

Baptisms transfer

Baptized at the United church were Jodi Erin Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coleman; Patricia Eileen Near, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Near; Tracie Marie Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Binio transferred their membership from Guelph.

M.Z. Bennett classmates of Wayne Mayer are sending him letters to the Sick Children's hospital to cheer him up. With no mail service, the messages are taken down to the hospital by car.

Hi Neighbour! said the Welcome Service again this week.

The newcomers to town were officially welcomed by Mrs. Marlene Stecklev.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lawson, Churchill Rd., have moved up from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Whitten and children come from Ajax to Norman Blvd.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Van Kooten and son moved up from Oakville to R. R.2.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brouwer and two sons moved from Burlington to Churchill Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, formerly of Weston, are on Norman Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Loubser and children are on Elizabeth and came from Willowdale.
