

Halton W.I. president Dublin branch guest

Mrs. Leo Jamieson of Ballinacra was welcomed to the meeting of Dublin Women's Institute on Thursday night. Mrs. Jamieson is president of the Halton Women's Institute and was introduced by Mrs. M. Nellis to the ladies. In a pleasing manner she gave many helpful hints in preparing Institute programs, and in a novel way she suggested ways of giving a five minute talk at each meeting by the chairmen of the different Standing Committees. Much food for thought was gained, and Mrs. Wallace Lasby thanked her for a very interesting and helpful discourse.

Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Third Line, was the hostess of the evening, and Mrs. E. Norton, as president, presided. Following the opening exercises Mrs. N. Douglas called the roll "Write a commercial about your item for the auction sale", which was following later in the program. Many humorous verses were given.

A detailed financial report was given by Mrs. Douglas, treasurer, which showed a fine balance on hand in the treasury.

Invitations were extended to visit Tinkerbell Nursery at the E. C. Drury School, Milton, on November 28, and at the Halton District School the same day at 1 p.m. at the Maple Leaf Auditorium, Ashgrove.

Five minute talks were given by Mrs. H. Besley on World Affairs, Mrs. D. Hunter on Consumer Affairs, and Mrs. Calvin J. McIntyre from the Visiting Committee, as chairmen of their respective committees.

Mention was made of the Acton Fall Fair Banquet being held on Friday, November 21 at Brookville Hall, which was being catered to by the ladies of the Branch.

The next monthly meeting will take the form of a Christmas party on Thursday, December 4 at the home of Mrs. G. McMillan, No. 25 Sideroad. Family Night will be held in Luxton Hall on December 13 to which the husbands and children will join with the women of the families for dinner and a social evening.

As a reminder of the 50th Anniversary Tea of the Dublin Branch held on June 14, 1975, a folder was given to each member to preserve the history of the Branch as given that day in "Cavalcade of Progress in Dublin Women's Institute over the past Fifty Years." This had been compiled by Mrs. Alex Near, assisted by Mrs. H. Dodds, and given on this special day by Mrs. Near.

Also in the booklet is a poem, "Smiling Through with Dublin", composed and given on that anniversary by Mrs. D. Hunter in a very humorous way.

A contest "Identify Yourself" was presented by Mrs. J. C. Dennis, and Mrs. M. Nellis and Mrs. R. L. Davidson were the winners.

Auction sale
Home-baking, pickles, jams, candy, vegetables, fruits, etc. were offered in good supply for the annual auction sale. Mrs. C. McIntyre was the lively auctioneer and realized real good prices, and everyone went home with one or more articles from their neighbours' kitchens.

At the close of the meeting, the lunch committee composed of Mrs. M. McCullough, Mrs. A. Near and Mrs. J. C. Dennis, assisted by the hostess and Mrs. D. Hunter served a friendly chit-chat. Courtesy convener was Mrs. A. Diamond.

Parent study groups begin

Family Counsellor Stan Shapiro visited Acton in October as part of the school's Family Life Education program. He sparked considerable interest in Adlerian psychology and nursery parents wanted to pursue this "discipline without punishment" method of raising children.

As a result, part of the next Family Life meeting will be devoted to organizing Parent

Study Groups to work through the Dreikurs book "Children the Challenge." A large selection of books on parenting and marriage will be on display and some will be available for purchase.

Values
The other part of the meeting will be on the topic of values. Those attending will be guided through the process of clarifying their values and discussions will revolve around "how do I handle situations where my values are different from those of my children, spouse, friends, etc.?" High school students are invited to participate in this program.

The meeting will be held in the M. Z. Bennett Resource Centre at 7:30 on Thurs. Dec. 4.

If you are interested in the Parent Study Group but cannot attend on Dec. 4, please phone 853-2920 and ask for Brian Skerrett.
