The nicest salesmen in town now come gift-wrapped in one of these.

Some stores decorate their walls for Christmas. At Tyner-Shorten, we decorate our sales staff.

You'll see them in their cheery red jackets at every Tyner-Shorten store from now to Christmas Eve. They add a bit of crimson sparkle to shopping at Tyner-Shorten. And they also help our sales staff stand out amidst all those colourful selections.

Which is another reason to make your first Christmas stop at Tyner-Shorten. Choose a shirt for him by Arrow, Huthaway, or Pierre Cardin... a cozy sweater by Ingo, Byford or Jantzen... a topcoat by Aquascutum... or shoot the works with a Country Squire sports jacket. Then again, you can always leave the agony up to him by giving a Tyner-Shorten gift certificate.

Oh, by the way. Every year, somebody decides that their Uncle Herbie would like one of our red Tyner-Shorten jackets for Christmas. Sorry. Tyner-Shorten salesmen will sell you the shirt off their backs if it means a happy Christmas for you.

But not their red jackets.

Not until after December 25th, at least.
