The presentation took place at the school's 10th anniversary dinner in Holy Cross Auditorium, Georgetown. Over 30 children from Acton and district attend the school. Mrs. Petrusma received flowers.

SPECIAL GUEST at the Georgetown District Christian School 10th anniversary dinner Friday night was Rev. Jim Joesse, first minister of the church from which the school evolved. Rev. Joesse travelled from Edmonton for the occasion.

Last day of one mail first day of the next! As the volume of mail remaining from the strike decreased, Christmas mail increased here this week. By Tuesday mail volume was about back to normal for this time of year, with the backlog from the strike apparently delivered. However, Christmas cards are starting to come in in increasing numbers each day. No extra staff has been hired, though.
