

THE PUCK IS JUST going into Meaford's net for Steve Brunelle's second goal of the season. Defenceman Brunelle, who is out of the photo to the left, drifted into the slot to pick up a pass from the corner. He let a slap shot go as soon as the puck was on his blade. Russ Van Fleet (8) is waiting for the rebound which never came, as Al Fritzel watches from the far side of the rink. Acton beat the Monarchs 3-1, and tied Huntsville 4-4 over the weekend.

Sabres start new year with three point weekend

Sabres got the new year off to an excellent start over the weekend when they skated to a 3-1 victory over the Meaford Monarchs and tied the Huntsville Huskies 4-4.

The three out of a possible four point weekend, the team's most successful this season, moved it five points ahead of the collar-dwelling Monarchs. The five points also gives Sabres a firmer hold on the final playoff position in the OHA Junior "C" loop.

The Sabres and Monarchs meet just once more, in Meaford, for the final game of the season. In Huntsville Sunday Sabres went two up early in the first period on goals by Perry Caputo, who also got two assists, and Andre Wyseman. Sabres' second goal came at the 8:17 mark, but the two-goal lead stayed for only 18 seconds.

Jim Braggs scored the first of four straight goals by Huskies. By the five minute mark of the final period the host team was sitting on a two goal lead.

23 seconds to play After Al Behrens got Sabres' third power play goal, captain Charlie McRae got the equalizer with 23 seconds remaining to play. McRae's goal, his 14th of the season, came from a passing play between Caputo and Don Richard. Caputo picked up the puck in Sabres' end, slipped it to Richard inside Acton's blue line. Richard skated the length of the ice, lured the defence to the left and fed a pass into the slot and the waiting McRae, who let go a snap shot.

The game was by far the most impressive performance put on by Sabres against Huskies. Robin Insoe in goal kicked out 37 shots, 15 of them in the final frame. Lloyd Moore continued to improve, handing out a stiffening body check to a Huskie midway through the first period which was "probably the best body check we've made this season". Manager Bill Campbell said, Sabres lost their first three games to Huntsville, 12 men to 16.

Sabres played 12 men to 16 in Huntsville. Paul Monahan has gone to Toronto and is not expected to return. Ray Dunbar was also in Toronto. Terry Holmes who sat out both weekends with stretched ligaments in the left ankle is expected to return to action this week. Al Fritzel left Sabres to go Junior "B" with the Milton Flyers.
