Consistent Bowlers are Graham White with both games of 115 and Christine Parker with both games of 94.

Juniors
1st Shift: The Blazers cooled down the Hot Shots but flamed up themselves as they burned all games and totals. The Hot Ones

Peewees in 3rd spot

The minor peewees slipped into third place after losing 3-0 to Orangeville Monday and 3-1 to the same team Wednesday, Jan. 7.

In the Wednesday game, the minor peewees took an early second period lead on a goal by Rick Greenly from an assist by Tim Evans. Orangeville tied before the period was over, and added two goals in the third period.

Orangeville scorers were David Kearney with a pair and Mike Jullison with a single.

Acton sits in third spot in league standings behind Elmira and Orangeville.

Finns win just one

Vaasa Sport midgets from Finland won only one game on their six game minor hockey tour of Ontario, which included a December 30 stop in Georgetown where they lost 4-3 to the undefeated Tri-county league leaders, Sunny Acres Farm midgets.

The Vaasa team beat London 6-4, but lost twice to Brampton 10-5 and 10-1 and once each to Brampton 9-2 and St. Catharines 13-1.

The Finns flew home last Wednesday afternoon.

Rotarians lead stars

Georgetown players scored 60 per cent of the goals, as the Tri-county juvenile all-stars dumped the best juvenile players from the York-Simcoe league 10-5 in the annual "dream game" over the holidays.

Mike Osborne scored three goals, Doug Thompson two and Paul Allison one. Rob Hamilton, Glenn Fendley and Bruno Martina of the Georgetown Rotary juveniles were also named to the team.

The Tri-county win avenged a 5-2 York-Simcoe victory in the midget all-star game at Maple.

This weekend the Georgetown club, which is second in Brampton in the Tri-county standings travels to Mooretown to defend its championship in the Silver Stick Tournament.

McMahon named coach

Mike McMahon, a member of the Georgetown District High physical education teaching staff has been named one of four assistants to Ron Pither, head coach of Canada's National field lacrosse team.

McMahon, who played professionally in Syracuse last summer and starred with the fine Windsor Warlocks senior team was in Peterborough Saturday to help the team begin training. Other assistant coaches are Chris Rudge of Brampton, Joe

Flyer protest fails

Milton Flyers failed in an attempt to nail the Geminis in the committee room. Flyers, who haven't come within three goals of the Geminis in five games charged Georgetown used Bill Kirby for the January 3 game here when he should have been suspended. Milton lodged an official protest to the OHA and Geminis prepared a defence. This week both teams were returned their $50. Geminis apparently asked the referee after December 27 game against Streetsville when Kirby was given a game misconduct and were told he would not be suspended.

Skins undo Shirts 36-34

The Skins unravelled the Shirts to win the Ladies' Basketball 36-34 in a game played Wednesday, Jan. 7.

Maureen Gerth led the Skins with 17 baskets while Betty Hamilton shot ten.

Janice Gagne collected 16 points for the Shirts and Maggie Hall was right behind in the scoring with 14 points.

SARAH HOMER PRACTISES HER FIGURES on the ice in the community centre. Sarah is one of several youngsters preparing for the Acton Figure Skating Club competitions to be held February 19.

University cites Steve Van Fleet

Steven Van Fleet, with an average of 95 percent in three major subjects, has been honored by the University of Miami in Ohio.

From the university's student body of more than 19,000, Mr. Van Fleet, 21, was selected as a member of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities "for outstanding academic and athletic merit", states a written release from the university. Mr. Van Fleet went to the university on athletic scholarship for javelin throwing.

The university's Phi Beta Kappa fraternity has also chosen Mr. Van Fleet as a member. Mr. Van Fleet said that three members of the paper technology school, where he is specializing, have been selected in the past decade.

Mr. Van Fleet has maintained an academic average of 95, 93, and 97 in chemical engineering, mathematics and chemistry.

Mr. Van Fleet said news of the awards came to him as a surprise. He first heard of the honor approximately three weeks ago, he said.

HAS 5107 Basic Electricity
Great effort is given to make this subject very practical and one which will enable the student to troubleshoot, and understand appliance operation more thoroughly. The student learns that electrical control is common to all types of appliances. He therefore learns to correctly connect the proper electrical instrument to various parts of the electrical circuit and obtain information to assist him in diagnosis, and adjustment. He learns about current, flow, resistance, voltage, magnetic fields, electrical power, series and parallel circuits, alternating current, and direct current.

Tuesdays, 7:00-10:00 p.m. Starts January 27
10 Sessions. Fee $30.00.

OST 2801 Office Skills for Today I
This course is job orientated, providing practical instruction and training in secretarial office procedures and typing. Previous typing not necessary. Office Skills for Today I will include complete use of the typewriter from keyboard drills to centering, typing columns and reports, personal and business letters, envelopes, manuscripts and stencils. In Office Procedures the following topics are discussed: the secretary's role, mail routines, postal regulations and services, filing systems and equipment, telephone techniques and services (using Sheridan's Telephone Trainer) and telegraph services. During the course we also study proper language use.
