

B/W 1st
Prize

from the Credit Valley Conservation Authority

ation Photo Contest

es of the Credit Valley again caught the e color section of the annual photo
d by the Credit Valley Conservation were 80 entries in the contest for black and white.

COLOR WINNERS

ris, 2646 Widemarr Rd., Mississauga won first prize in h a fall photo of the Loyalist Creek area behind Sheridan
e was titled "Mushroomville", taken on the Bruce Trail at Credit by Keith D. Lamont, 392 Pine Ave., Oakville.

ry of Churchville won third prize with an autumn shot of r east of Creditview Road.

BLACK AND WHITE WINNERS

of a young fisherman near the mouth of the Credit River
in the black and white prints for Barry Powell, 1333 Mississauga.

ent bridge on the river road north of Steeles Avenue won H. Fried, 39 Greystone Cres., Brampton.

ng photo of ripples on the river won third prize for Mrs.
9 Greenwood Crescent, Bramalea.

able mention was given to John Mawhinney, 2465 Mississauga for a book of colour prints from across the

SLIDE WINNERS

(not shown)

1. DR. P. R. VAN RHIJN of Streetsville again won first prize in the 35 m.m. slide category with yellow sawgrass in the Credit River at the Meadowvale Conservation Area.

2. SECOND PRIZE was a misty, moody picture of a fisherman on the river taken by Dean Keeping of 46 Plainsman Road, Streetsville.

3. JOHN LAWSON of 20 Crescent Hill, Brampton won third prize with a picture of a garter snake among green leaves and yellow grass.

The slides and prints will be used for education and display projects
of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

B/W 2nd
Prize

