HEADPIN HILITES It happens now and again in the process of making up the great family journal, the Acton Free Press. Someone gets overzealous with the snipping selssors and the odd line or paragraph winds up on the press-room floor. In this case It was the top triple trundlers for Reliable Taxls in their go with the Acton Lanes in the Major league January 15th. We regret this exceedingly seeing as how the old pro, Hanke Earle, mowed the pine down for a hot $19 (355) triple followed by Boh Woodcock 730 (250) and Don Grein 651 (229) (And as the late Ted Lewis used to ask "is everybody happy?" - ! regarding the "Adams Classified" tournament, while league secretaries and the management have treld to contact all bowlers about this annual do, in case you have been missed, contact your league secretary on or before January 31-that winds it up once again, my friendlies, so adios, amigos and goodnite, Concord City.

ICE BUILD-UP Here's a winter tip for motorists from the Ontario Safety League. Keep the car well ventilated to avoid fumes and prevent the inside glass trouble in winning the second but from misting up. A rear window open a fraction of an inch helps circulate heat. One point for totals. Jack Van Der or two windows open a crack Kooy 614 (234), Thys Spiinter 534 when parked will prevent ice
