

Icicles hanging from roofs and frosted window panes help brighten up the dreary winter month of February, when the sun appears to turn them into glittering jewels.

