BUTCH GIVEN and Peter Bolton, the demon painters, apply the finishing touches to the new ceiling outside the men's washroom in the town hall. The boys were employed on a part-time basis to assist on this LIP project. Much of the work done up to this point has been underground, the building of a furnace room and the fire-proofing of the back portion of the building. Village residents will soon see some changes as the renovation moves ahead on the main hall and exterior.

"STRAW BOSS" Murray McLaren prepares panelling for the new wash-rooms in the town hall. He is assisted by Murray Haig (not available for photo) who did the excellent job of drafting for the project. The two men have undertaken the town hall renovation and beautification. Trustee Pat Smith is responsible for the overall administration of this undertak-

Will Koreans see Christ in Canadians?

At the Rockwood United Church Women's meeting Mrs. Florence Trousdale gave an interesting insight into the writer of the Book of Matthew. It is felt that an unknown person who knew Matthew may have written this book of the Bible; he was likely a converted Jew who was convinced of the need for his fellow Hebrews to read of the fulfillment of the pro-phecies in the Old Testament in the life of Jesus Christ. He meant the book primarily as a missionary outreach to Mrs. Verna Root and Mrs. Alvena McDougal read some portions from the earlier chapters of Matthew to illustrate the prophetic birth of Jesus and the emphasis on the Isaiac prophecy of teaching the Gentiles. Mrs. Vera Patterson and Mrs. Sytske Dryber read from the scriptures to show that Jesus had unusual gifts, consoling men in words that are still relevant today.

Mrs. Nan Little completed the review with readings from Jesus telling of his return to earth. Mrs. Trousdale noted that Matthew was convinced of the Divine pattern behind the historical facts in Jesus' life, "It is supposed he wrote around the year 85 AD, and the value of this Gospel is enormous as a Christian document," she said.

During the business period it was noted that the annual Presbyterial will be held in Kitchener; those who wish to attend are to contact Miss Gladys Hanna.

Mission study Missions study for this year are five lives of Christians who are working in several countries, each trying to make a relevant impact upon that society. Mrs. Dryber chose the life of Stephen Moon of Korea.

Mr. Moon was graduated from Korean and Japanese Mission schools before the Korean War. After the war he came to the United States and became interested in the Black Power movement, and their attempts to revolution-
