

WINTER SPORT HIGHLIGHTS IN NORTH HALTON

(1) BLITZING THROUGH A gate at Glen Eden this skier makes downhill racing look easy. The race was part of a tournament held last month.

(2) ALL EYES ARE ON the shooter and the puck as Sabre defenceman Lloyd Moore unleashes a shot from the Bracebridge Bears' blueline during an OHA Junior C game in Acton.

(3) BURLINGTON MOHAWK GOALIE Rick Katchanoski foils a scoring opportunity by Georgetown Gemini captain Rick Becker (12).

(4) THE AIR was six degrees Fahrenheit, the Fairy Lake water temperature a warmer 34 degrees in mid-January when three divers of the Halton Scuba Trek opted for warmth—underwater. Making the descent of 20 feet were Jim Powell, Jim Mulholland and Dave Francis with J. D. Hewitt as divemaster.

(5) DEMONSTRATING THE inward pike dive before a crowd at the Acton Pool are Russ Gray, foreground and Ray Kingsmill. They and 40 other swimmers and divers took part in the first aquatic show hosted at the pool.

(6) TWO-BY-TWO THEY GO UP the T-bar to reach the top of the hill at the Kelso Conservation Area near Milton.

(7) MILTON FLYER Ken Fay (9) in a Junior B game. Doug Barnes (10) moves in on goalie.

(8) GIRLS IN GEORGETOWN limer up for swimming lessons.

(9) MAC SPROWL, LEFT, and Gord Toth bend their backs and brooms to ease Andy McKenzie's rock on its way down an ice sheet in the Acton Curling Club.

(10) CANADIAN FIGURE SKATING champion Toller Cranston gave a special exhibition at the Central Ontario Sectionals in Georgetown in November.
