

INTER SPORT HIGHLIGHTS

WORTH HALTON

GOING THROUGH A gate at Glen Eden this skier makes the race look easy. The race was part of a tournament held at the pool.

THEY ARE ON the shooter and the puck as Sabre defence Moore unleashes a shot from the Bracebridge Bears' during an OHA Junior C game in Acton.

WORTHINGTON MOHAWK GOALIE Rick Katchanoski foils a shot by Georgetown Gemini captain Rick Becker.

THE TEMPERATURE was six degrees Fahrenheit, the Fairy Lake water was a warmer 34 degrees in mid-January when three members of the Halton Scuba Trek opted for warmth—underwater. The descent of 20 feet were Jim Powell, Jim Mulholland and Jim with J. D. Hewitt as divemaster.

(5) DEMONSTRATING THE inward pike dive before a crowd at the Acton Pool are Russ Gray, foreground and Ray Kingsmill. They and 60 other swimmers and divers took part in the first aquatics show hosted at the pool.

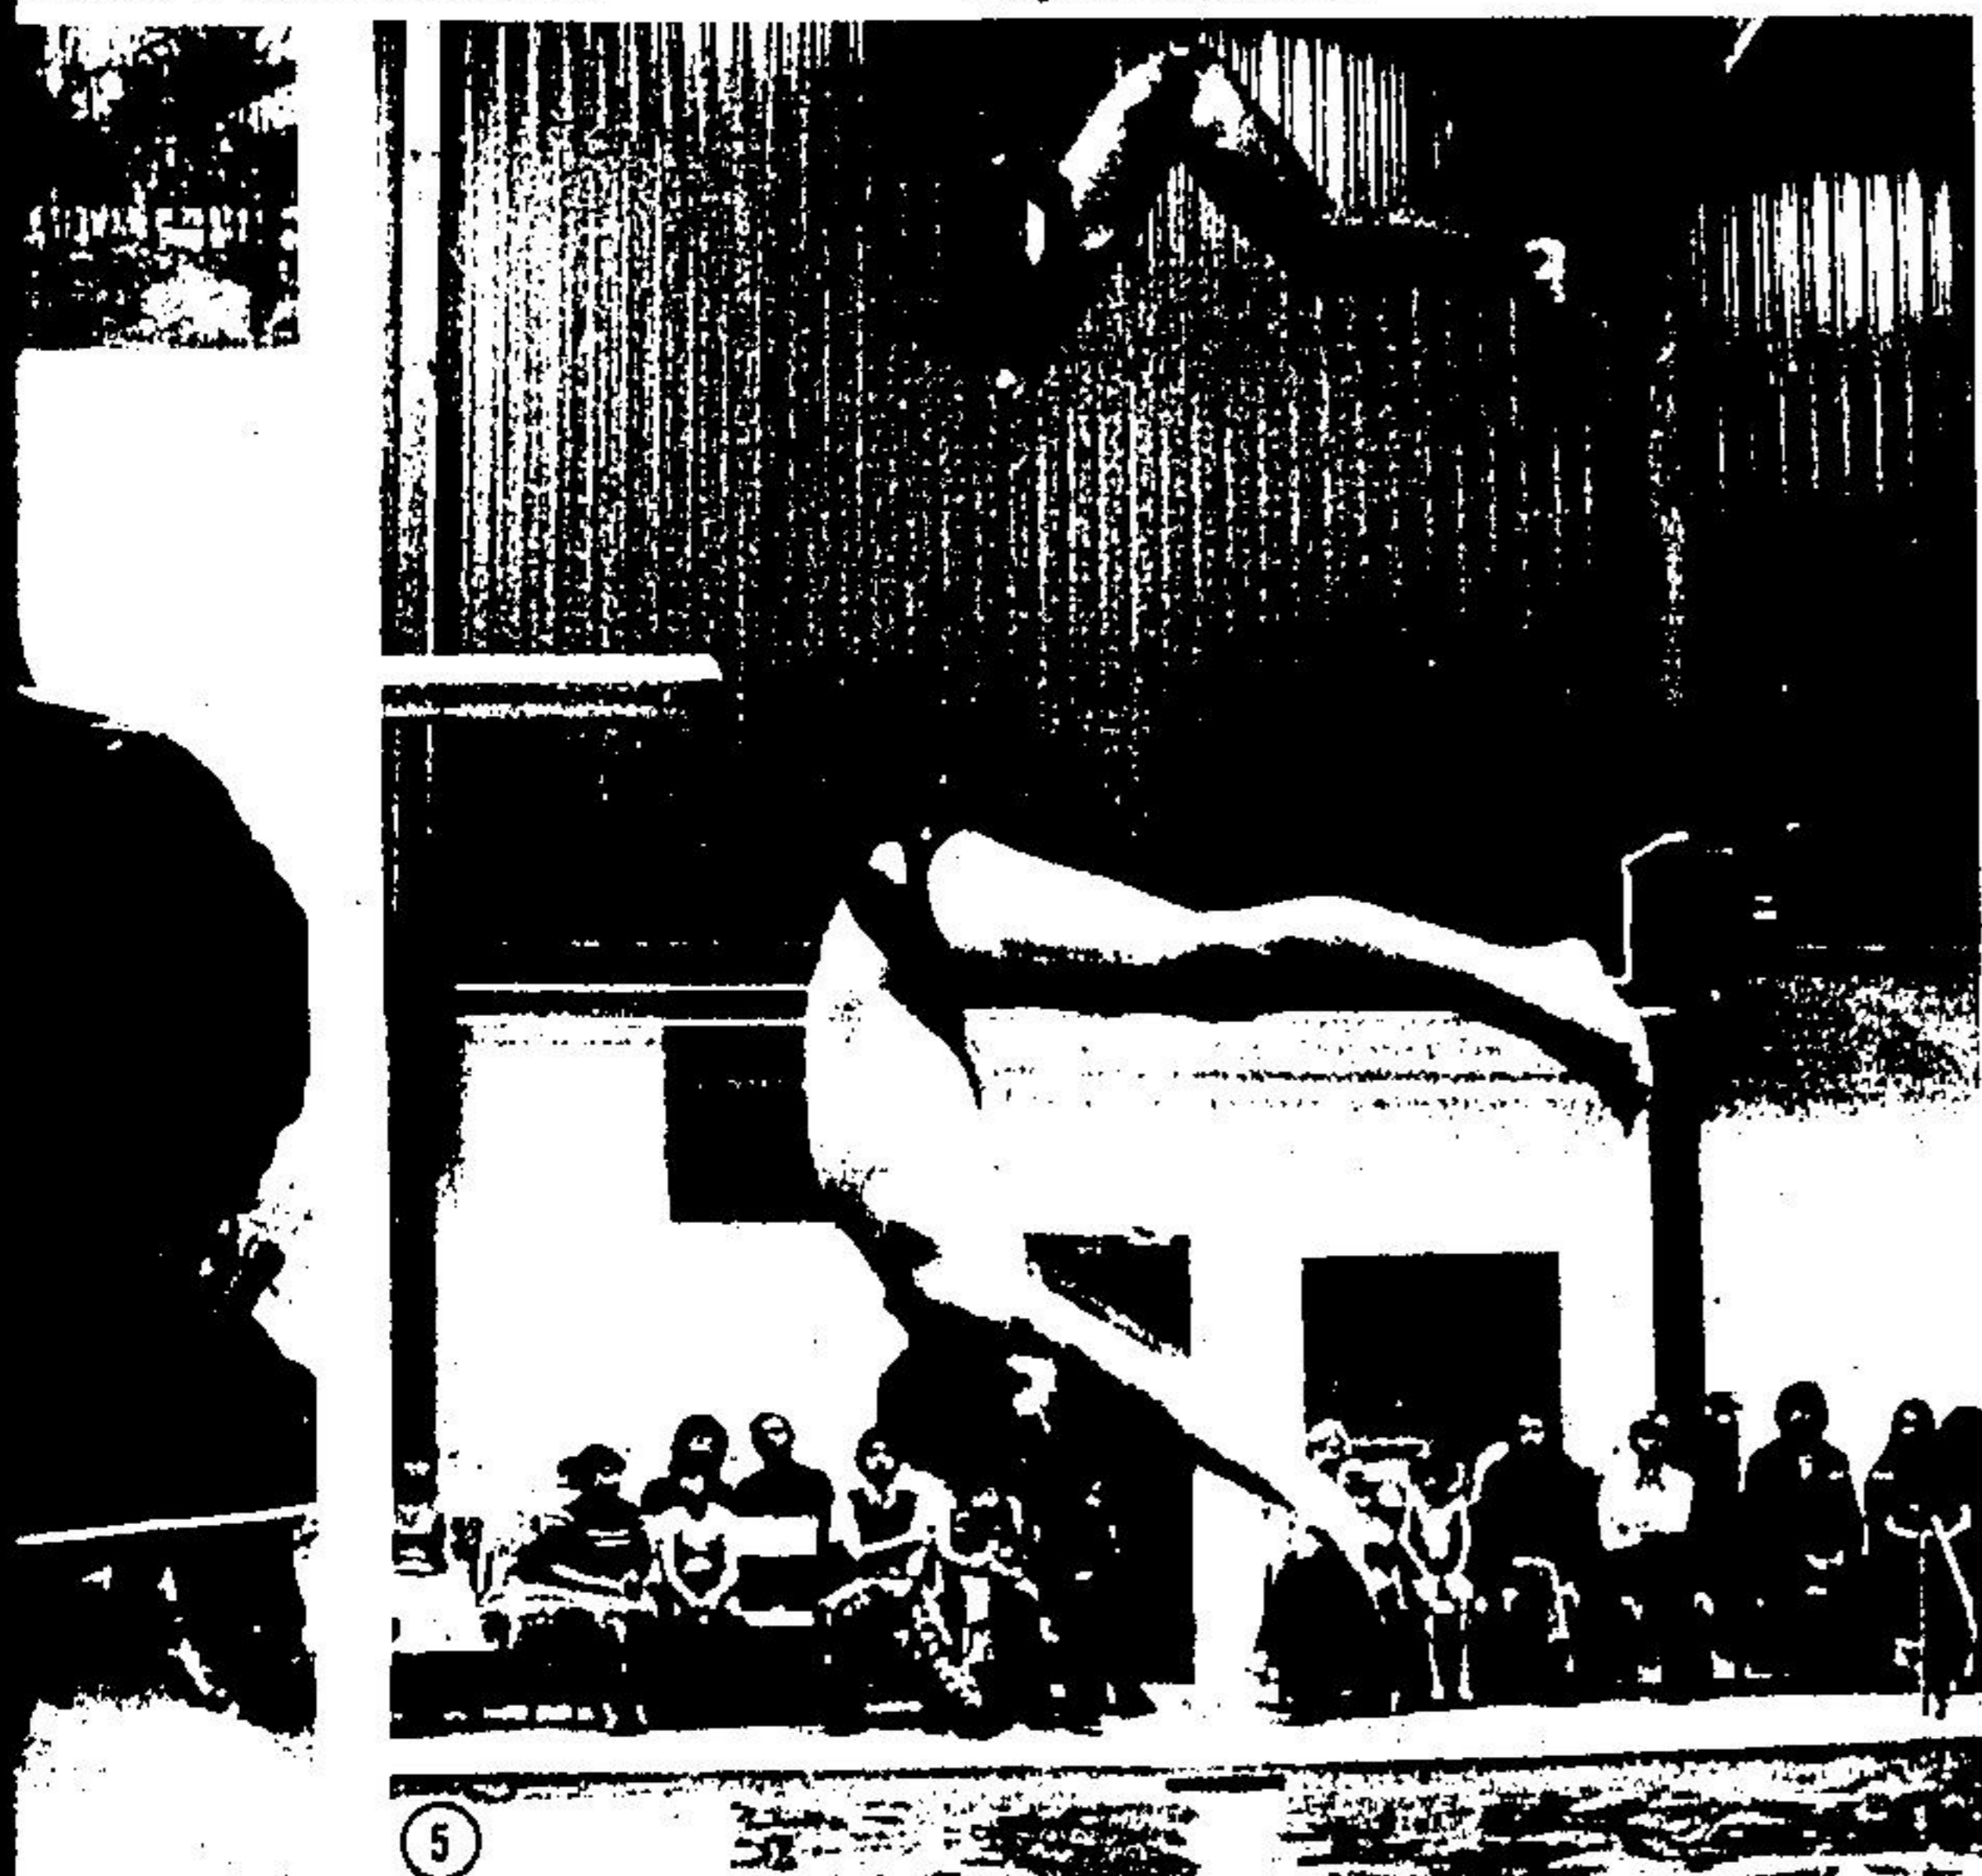

(6) TWO-BY-TWO THEY GO UP the T-bar to reach the top of the hill at the Kelso Conservation Area near Milton.

(7) MILTON FLYER Ken Fay (9) in a Junior B game. Doug Barnes (10) moves in on goalie.

(8) GIRLS IN GEORGETOWN limber up for swimming lessons.

(9) MAC SPROWL, LEFT, and Gord Toth bend their backs and brooms to ease Andy McKenzie's rock on its way down an ice sheet in the Acton Curling Club.

(10) CANADIAN FIGURE SKATING champion Toller Cranston gave a special exhibition at the Central Ontario Sectionals in Georgetown in November.

5

6