25 beds

News that 25 active treatment beds at Milton District Hospital will have to be closed has been met with anger, disgust and a lot of confusion. According to a recent deci-sion of the Ministry of Health, the hospital must cut $100,000 from its budget and close 25 of its 83 beds. The decision contradicts the earlier statement of minister of Health Frank Miller who sald the Halton area wouldn't be affected because it was a high growth
