

PHILBROOK SPEAKS in the house.

A day in the life of an MP

Champion photographer Steve Dills and reporter Bob Burt visited Halton MP Frank Philbrook in his Ottawa office last week.

Hectic schedules, long hours on the job and a never-ending quest for information are the characteristics of most MP's.

In spite of a schedule that sees him running to keep up from the beginning of the day to the wee hours of the next morning, Dr. Philbrook says there isn't anything he would like to cut from his schedule.

See more coverage elsewhere in this week's issue.

(Staff photos by Steven Dills)

THE AVERAGE DAY for Dr. Philbrook runs into about 16 hours.

DR. PHILBROOK GETS a lot of assistance from secretary Lise Long. She is one of two secretaries who work in an office outside of Dr. Philbrook's private office.

AS AN MP Frank Philbrook spends a lot of time in the House of Commons. Compulsory house duty amounts