Mayor seeks help to keep Riding as is

Mayor Tom Hill is calling on all Halton Hills residents. to help him fight the electoral boundary change which would lump Georgetown and Brampton together as a rlding in the next federal

He told the Georgetown and District Progressive Conservative Association members, last week, he was appealing to all political parties to join in this fight to keep the boundaries the way they are now.

He suggested a committeee of all three parties lead the battle, and circulate a petition.

Heart fund nets $2,741

The Heart Fund drive in Browne, Village Variety, Acton raised $2,741.95 this year, according to organizer Vic Bristow. This breaks down to $2,125.07 residential, $311 business, $169 industry, and $136.88 for the roses sold in banks and stores.

The second annual Heart Fund proved to be most successful, according to Mr. Bristow. The chairman is very pleased to announce they exceeded last year's givings by about $700. We do of course have more people in town this year but it took ten more very dedicated and hard-working volunteer canvassers to do the job. To these people we are very grateful, he said.

"It is our hope that other campaigns can be as success-ful as ours was. All these appeals are for worthy causes and the people of Acton have shown that their heart are in the right place when the need
