I.G.A. Bonsplei

We certainly are lucky to have the I.G.A. sponser a bonspiel at our club. This bonspiel is a favourite among club members and last Saturday was no exception. The bonspiel offers competitiveness, good exercise and most of all fun and friendship. We would like to thank the I.G.A for its generosity in sponsering this super day.
After the day was over, the results indicated two draw winners and an overall champion capturing the trophy. Winners of the first draw was the rink of Bill Cripps, Gwen Tyler, Martin Oehlrich and Mary Smith. Second came Colin Baker, Dolores Jordan, Glen Gray and Grace Lucas. Third was the rink of Fred Archibald, Dolly Moulden, Elmer Lucas and Dorothy

The second draw winner also turned out to be the overall grand champion. The champion team was skipped by Pete Vidler, viced by Karen Shortill, seconded by Marg McKenzie and led by Bev Appleyard. Coming in second in the second draw was the rink of Jack Holmes, Sue Patrick, Bob Louttet and Shirley Rosenbersky. Third was Gord Toth, Nickle Camp- ' couple of fine shots in the last bell, Harry Otterbein and Nancy Vidler.

Later on during the dance. a blackout occured causing concern for some but most enjoyed it and made the best of the situation.

Coming up this week is the Walker-Ridley bonspiel. Many of our club members are curling in this bonspiel and we wish them all luck. Jim Coughlin, Glen Gray and Pete Vidler are travelling to Oakville this weekend to curl in the 3rd annual World Championship Lefthanders Bonspiel. They are being skipped by Jim Detlor of Niagara Falls.
