During the past weekend the Acton curling club hosted its annual Hospitality Bonspiel and as always it was a smashing success. For most members it was the last time they would be curling this year so they certainly ended their curling season with a bang. The spiel was sponsored by Mike Kinal of Acton Home Hardware and the members of the curling club wish to thank him for his generosity and interest. We certainly hope he enjoyed himself at our club as much as we enjoyed his company and kindness.

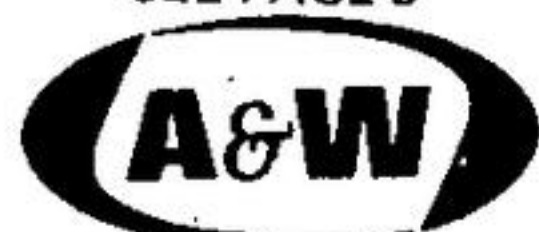

This spiel is different in that most of the dips consist of two club members and two members from out of town. It is in this way that hospitality takes place. Besides curling everyone has a fantastic time. Starting on Friday night, a delicious buffet was served up by Donna Cripps and crew. Saturday night brought a delicious roast beef dinner and a dance that lasted to the wee hours of the morning. Sunday morning, all curlers were treated to an appetizing breakfast of bacon, eggs, pancakes, toast and all the other fixings served up by Harry Otterbein and crew.

Presentations
Finally Sunday evening arrived and all curlers dragged their stiff bodies and weary eyes into the lounge for the final presentations given out by Fred New. After four games of curling the results were:

Winners of the 1st draw: Ted Tyler Jr., Nan Hurat, Tom Nicol and Delors Tyler.
Winners of the 2nd draw: Bruce McArthur, Marilyn McArthur, Jim Murphy and Donna Murphy.

Winners of the 3rd draw: Sherry Few, June Magnuson, Glenn Magnuson and Dorothy

Houston, McKenzie in race

Two Acton long-distance runners competed in the annual spring road races at High Park, Toronto, Saturday.

Frank Houston, 18, placed fourth in the junior 4 1/2 mile distance run with a time of 23 minutes, 14 seconds. There were 15 runners in the race. In the five and three-quarter mile open men's event 20-year-old Glen McKenzie finished 26th out of a field of 48 entrants.

Both runners wear the colors of the Scarborough Optimists Club.

Lacrosse meeting

The midjet lacrosse hurlers will be holding a meeting tonight at 7:30 at the arena.

Sherry Few's rink is to be congratulated for their winning of the whole bonspiel.
Let's go, Acton men curlers! At this writing we are behind Erin in the annual competition between these two clubs. Let's go at them this week.

Ball officials switch hit

Pop Main and Bob Paul are switching duties in the North Halton Soft Ball Association (NHSBA).

A delegate to the NHSBA meeting at Bronte Sunday objected to Pop, who coaches the squirt girls, to also being the squirt girls' convener.

Mr. Paul, who was first named the convener for the bant boys, will take over the squirt girls' team.

Pop will convene the bant boys' team.
Mr. Paul is president of the Acton Minor Ball Association.

Raiders rule fourth game

Friday night's fourth game of the OHA Intermediate "A" championship series, a 5-2 Raider victory, revived pleasant memories of many previous "fish night" intermediate hockey successes for more than 1100 fans, who packed Alcott Memorial Arena. It was Raider's best crowd of the season.

It was like old times. Coach Junior Tibbitts pulled his second surprise act of the season by suiting up at centre between Tom Gilbert and Doug Tate, thus reuniting the line, which helped Raiders win their last OHA championship series in 1974. Raiders were on top of the Sailors right from the opening whistle, leading 2-1 at the end of the first period and 5-1 at the end of the second.

Larry Peterson showed the Sailors one of his slapshots that made him a 35 goal scorer in Junior "B" play this season. Port goalie Rob Stewart didn't make a move on the blast and Raiders were in front 1-0 at the 2:25 mark of the first period. Neil Cotton teamed up with Pat Maloney and Art Webster to make it 2-0 at 16:29, before Mike Green connected

Mike Green's goal with only three seconds left in the second period giving Port a 4-1 lead, may have been the turning point in that game, although Raiders came back to cut the Port lead to two goals at 6-4 in the third. Sailors replaced Stewart with backup goalie Jim Douglas in the third period of Friday's game. Douglas held the Raiders scoreless and made 11 saves.

PURINA CHOWS

LET YOUR RABBITS SHOW YOU HOW FAST THEY GROW ON PURINA RABBIT CHOW

Purina Rabbit Chow is one of the few rations developed by rabbit feeding tests to make extremely fast growth.

What's more, years of research in Purina's own rabbitry have developed a formula that helps make big litters, and low feed cost per pound of gain. Good results are the reasons why Rabbit Chow is the first choice of many large commercial rabbitries, and small growers, too. Try Rabbit Chow for just a few months. Prove to yourself it does the job the way you want it done.
