Lorne Scots pipes and drums participate.

Colonel R. W. Yorke CD, district commander of the Hamilton Militia district, took the salute and inspected the Lorne Scots (Peel, Dufferin and Halton Regiment) in full dress and battle gear Sunday afternoon in impressive ceremonies at the Air Canada hangar on Airport Road, Malton.

The troops which included the Lorne Scots cadet corps were drawn up in the huge hangar and paraded in behind the pipes and drums of the Lorne Scots pipe band. The regimental brass band provided music in the intervals between events that included mock battle duels, mortar practice and other war games.

The occasion was the Commanders Inspection Parade. Spectators were seated along one end of the hangar and had to clear view of both the formal inspection and the war exercises.

Commanding Officer of the Lorne Scots, Lieutenant-Colonel Frank E. Ching, CD, of Baltimore Aircoil, Georgetown, accompanied Colonel Yorke on his inspection of the troops, which included several females.

May switch meeting to prevent publication

A suggestion that committee meetings be moved from Monday to Wednesday night to prevent the publication of committee proceedings in the press before they are finalized by council, was made by Councillor Ern Hyde, Monday night.

Mayor Tom Hill said staff could not have the minutes ready on time.

"If we can meet they can cope," retorted Hyde. He claimed readers assume the committee recommendations are fact, when they do not become fact until passed by council.

Councillor Ric Morrow said any committee can decide to hold their meetings in camera, (behind closed doors) if they wish.

Councillor Pat McKenzie contended people think committee recommendations are council decisions, and read about it before councillors have a chance to find out what the other committees have done.

Councillor Roy Booth supported Hyde's suggestion. He said time and time again a committee recommendation is changed by council, and suggested it be considered by administration committee.
