

A SHERLOCK Holmes style walking cape and hat was a striking choice of Lindsay Jones. The outfit made in brown wool will be just the thing for those misty days in the countryside. Lindsay added high boots to set off the ensemble.

A COMFORTABLE choice for evening was this three-piece selection Phyllis Bayne of Rockwood modelled. The outfit in a soft orange shade looked attractive with the buttoned skirt and matching jacket.

NEW CHOIR outfits! The choir will tour Britain in style this year. The girls modelled their new colours—flared floor-length skirts in navy blue and crisp white blouses with matching ties. These are the local members of the Eramosa Youth Choir and does not include the Guelph, Erin or male members of the choir. From l. to r.—Susan Milne, Osprings; Mrs. Roberta Hoy, Guelph (Choir Leader); Janet Burnett, R. R. 3, Rockwood; Lindsay Jones, R. R. 3 Rockwood; Phyllis Bayne, R. R. 4 Rockwood; Valerie Burnett, R. R. 3 Rockwood; Judy Jackson, Everton; Bonnie Lang, Osprings; Linda Pankratz, Acton and Heather Benham, R. R. 3 Rockwood.

The Spring Fashion Show held last Wednesday evening in Guelph at the Trinity United Church was no ordinary show. The Eramosa Youth Choir is going to Britain this summer and the show was one way of helping them get there. All the fashions shown were made by the girls or their mothers and will be worn on the trip.

The stage was beautifully set up, by the choir and the delicious cakes and goodies served following the show were also made by the members or their mothers. Door prizes were given out by the male section of the choir who had not modelled. They had fun involving members of the audience in their draws.

The choir will land in Prestwick on July 28 and will tour Aberdeen, Scotland, Wales and London. They are going to sing in the International Youth Festival and will combine this with sightseeing, receptions and concerts. Mrs. Roberta Hoy, the lady who directs the choir, explained that the group has built up a repertoire of songs throughout the year so that they will have a full concert. The choir sang a beautiful medley of songs for the audience that seemed to reflect the light, gay feeling of the evening.

All proceeds of the evening went towards the trip. Each ticket a member sold was deducted from the cost of their ticket.

THIS BEIGE skirt and printed top will get lots of wear and look just as cool and trim as it does now. Susan Milne of Osprings chose this comfortable outfit.

Spring fashion show benefits youth choir

BONNIE LANG, left, of Osprings wore this striking two-piece set in hot pink. The top had an attached hood. Judy Jackson of Everton wore this pretty blue and white formal with matching hat.
