New group has Daffodil tea

The Bertha E. Buchanan Young Women's Affiliated Group Daffodil Tea held on Saturday, April 24, in Knox Presbyterian Church was a great success. Donations for the bake table poured in all morning.

The tea was well attended by friends and well wishers from the time the doors opened until they closed at 5 p.m.

The draw for the doorprize was made by Mrs. Andrew McKenzie and was won by Mrs. Jean Anderson of R.H. 1, Georgetown.

All the baked goods left from the bake sale were divided into boxes and taken to some of the senior citizens of the church who have been taking advantage of the Group's Sunday morning taxi service, and others.

The room was brightly decorated with daffodils, many of them from the garden of Dr. A. J. Buchanan and the late Bertha Buchanan.

DAFFODIL TEA conveners Jessie Gibson and Marsha Roughley sell ticket to Lynda Sayers Saturday afternoon.

DOOR PRIZE at Bertha E. Buchanan group tea is displayed by president Lorraine Renaud. This was the first money-raising event for the new group at Knox.

CAROL MCKENZIE offers sandwiches and pickles to tea customer Mrs. R. Algie Saturday afternoon at Knox church.

MOUTH WATERING baking sold speedily at the Bertha E. Buchanan Young Women's Affiliated Group tea Saturday afternoon. Ready for customers are Gladys Davidson, Marg Aitken, Carol Ferrier and Marg Hammond.

TENA WALKER, eight, buys herself some delicious rolls at the baking table at the tea in Knox church Saturday afternoon. Many attended.

Oxfam fair set for arena

Preparations are underway for a trade fair to be held in the Acton arena on May 15 by the Acton OXFAM group. Local artists or other talents are invited to join in the fair which will be an all day event. They may contact Betty Comfort at R.R. 4, Acton.

picnic tables set out in Prospect Park early this year in order that families may make the best of the whole day. Permission was granted to have the tables, swings and slides set out one week ahead of time for the occasion.

It is expected people from Toronto, Kitchener, Waterloo, Milton, Guelph and Georgetown will attend as well as those from Acton.

Halton Hills councillor Les Doby asked town officials if it would be possible to have the Daphne King of the Acton group and Ann Tomlinson, general manager of the newsletter the OXFAM Trader.

Clergyman retires

Rev. J. W. Boyd, minister of West Toronto Baptist church, concluded his ministry last Sunday. This marks the end of his active pastoral work after more than 50 years in the ministry, all of it in Ontario.

Mr. Boyd was ordained at Acton, was pastor of Dovercourt Baptist church for 18 years, and in Guelph for 24 years before moving to Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd are planning to live in Toronto.

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hagon of Innerkip wish to announce the forthcoming marriage of her daughter Judith Ann to Berlon Currie, son of Mrs. Agnes Currie and the late Charles Currie of Nova Scotia, on May 15 at St. Rita's Roman Catholic Church, Woodstock. Judith is also the daughter of Robert Holmes, Acton.
