

G. Wedge dies at Centennial Manor

A member of the Acton Golden Age club, Gladys Hattie Wedge died in Milton Centennial Manor on April 9.

Born on June 3, 1902, in Erin Township, she was the daughter of William and Hattie Hitchcock. In July of 1920 she married the late Alfred Wedge in Erin. Four months ago she moved to the Manor from Acton. She was a member of the Acton Pentecostal church.

Mrs. Wedge was predeceased by her husband and is survived by sons Norman of Woodstock and Henry of Acton, and a daughter Mrs. Berta Aldwell, Campbellville, brother Harry Hitchcock, Erin, and sisters Mrs. Hazel Preston, Georgetown; Mrs. Ida Harding, Georgetown; and Mrs. Ella Harding, Acton.

Funeral service was held April 12 at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home with the Rev. S. M. Thoman officiating. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbearers were grandsons Clifford Wedge and Philip Wedge and nephews Gordon Harding, Leslie Harding, Frank Harding and Gordon Harding. Nephews Vernon and Daniel Hitchcock were flower bearers.

Pools must have fence

A number of Halton Hills residents will be required to either build a fence or else repair the fence they already have around their swimming pools.

Halton Hills works committee went along with chairman Mike Armstrong's request Monday to provide the building inspector with a list of persons whose pools aren't properly fenced.

Armstrong said fencing is essential for the safety of small children and noted he has received a number of complaints about unfenced pools recently.

J. BOSBOOM, R. R. 1 Acton, plays a pipe organ on display at Keates Organ Company Limited on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The organ has been made for a church in Kankakee, Illinois, where it will be shipped soon. Several Acton men who built the organ will be escorting the instrument to the States to set it up.

Stanley Stewart dies on April 16

Funeral services were held April 19 for H. Stewart, Rockwood.

Mr. Stewart died in Guelph General Hospital on April 16 at the age of 86.

Born in Egermont Twp. May 6, 1889, he was the son of David Stewart and Mary Armstrong. On March 14, 1917, he married the late Maggie McKenzie. The retired farmer lived in Eramosa township for 30 years before moving to Rockwood 28 years ago. He was a member of the Christian Church in Everton.

Mr. Stewart was predeceased by his parents, his wife, one sister Isabelle, (Mrs. S. McDougall) and a daughter Jean Isabelle. He is survived by a daughter Muriel May (Mrs. A. Kingsbury), R.R. 1 Acton, three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home, Acton, with the Rev. Don Whitehead officiating. Interment was at Everton Cemetery.

Pallbearers were D.D. Gray, Harve McDougall, Allan Lillie, Gordon Kingsbury, John Kneil and Gary Bateman.

Damage at store

Halton Hills works committee instructed engineer Robert Austin to investigate flooding problems caused by a deep depression in the sidewalk at the Pine Chair store, Main St.

Councillor Les Duby forwarded the problem to the committee after receiving complaints from the owner of the store Mr. Gwyer. The depression in the sidewalk apparently causes pooling of water which seeps into the store's basement and is causing damage.

KEEP LID ON
Pick a pan that fits the element on your stove, says Ontario Hydro. This will avoid waste heat escaping. Keeping the lid on a pan results in faster heating.

Violet Bradley dies in Guelph

The Rev. Ewing officiated at the funeral, April 15, of Violet Bradley, who died in St. Joseph's hospital, Guelph April 12. She was 65 years old.

On June 6, 1910, in Oshawa, Violet was born, the daughter of George and Alice Woods, since deceased. She married Clifford Bradley on March 22, 1929. Before moving to Acton 29 years ago, she and her husband lived in Erin and Georgetown. She was a member of St. Alban's Anglican church, Acton.

Mrs. Bradley is predeceased by her parents, sisters Lil McMenemy, Ethel Stuckey, Mabel Louth and Alice Smallman. Left to mourn her loss are her husband Clifford, 128 Church St. E. Acton; daughters Marg Slater, Toronto; Audrey Spielvogel, Acton; Sharon Dwyer, Acton; brothers Joe Woods, Guelph; Herb Woods, Guelph; Percy Woods, Eden Mills, and seven grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Ray Slater, Toronto, son-in-law, Frank Spielvogel, son-in-law, Acton; Howard Dwyer, son-in-law, Acton; Bob Bradley, Acton; nephew, Joe Woods Jr, nephew, Midland; George Woods, nephew, Elmvale.

Interment was at Fairview cemetery, Acton.

Confirm sighting, two step forward

Two more people have stepped forward in the Erin area to report they saw something unusual in the sky on the night of April 7, in the same general area and the same time as the two unidentified flying objects reports last week.

Harold Manes, Main St., Erin, brother of Dave Manes, Acton, said he was driving on Hwy. 24 near the 7th Line of Erin Twp. when he saw a greenish colored object flash across his windshield. Colin Newland, the man who brought the sightings to light a few weeks ago, had previously given an almost identical description. He was on Hwy. 24 driving from Ospringe to Erin.

Florence Wright, Spring St., Erin, noticed a yellow-gold object flying through the sky the same evening as she watched television from her second storey living room.

Nuballoon
Mrs. Wright thought it was a balloon because it was plate-shaped. When she watched it disappear into the bushes at the end of the property, she decided it wasn't a balloon. "It was too steady...to be floating".

A teacher at Erin public school, Marg White told Mr. Newland she had also seen something in the sky at the same time as he. They were both heading towards the school when the sightings occurred.

The Erin area has for some time been under study by the Ontario UFO Research Centre, Toronto, after a strange report from an Orton resident who claims to have seen a mysterious craft take off from her property last May.
