

W. I. members tour gallery

A visit to the McMichael Art Galleries at Kleinberg was enjoyed by 13 ladies and two children for the May meeting of Greenock W. I. The McMichael Canadian Collection is sponsored by the Ministry of Culture and Recreation. It is a magnificent setting for the endless hours of art displayed in works of art from such as the Group of Seven, Emily Carr, A. J. Casson, Clarence Gagnon, Winnifred Petchey Marsh (who has a studio in Thornhill) Indian and Eskimo carvings, paintings etc.

Plans for the Spring District Annual in Mimosa United Church of Wellington Centre May 26 were arranged. Pennies for Friendship for A.C.W.W. will be presented by Mrs. Geo. Wallace, Dist Director Mrs. E. McGeragle is voting delegate.

Mrs. R. Sinclair will give the roll call on theme of Prince Edward Island.

A needlepoint display will be set up by each branch that had taken the course this past winter.

Booth
A booth will be sponsored by members at Mrs. A. Leslie's auction sale early in June.

Securely tied bundles of newspapers will be accepted at Roots Hardware, Rockwood for the spring clean up paper drive.

Late in April Greenock W. I. sponsored a very successful jewellery party at the home of Mrs. A. Gates.

Programs for the new year will be scheduled at a meeting June first.

SOME OF THE scrumptious goods on sale at the Heather Club bake sale at Knox church were displayed by Mrs. Irene Terry and Mrs. Meryl Kirkness.

Early church theme of Auxiliary meeting

The May meeting of Knox Afternoon Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society met in the Mary Ellen Anderson room of the church. The theme of their meeting was "The early Church".

Miss Anderson, the president, opened the meeting with a poem entitled "The Church" and a prayer. Scripture from Luke 24 was read by Miss Emma Cole. Mrs. McKenzie in her talk about happenings from the time of resurrection to the time when this new religious sect became known as Christians referred to this final chapter in Luke's gospel and to the Book, the Acts of the Apostles.

McKenzie in serving tea and sandwiches to the ladies. The June meeting will be a picnic in the garden of one of the members if the weather is suitable.

Corsages made

It was a fun evening for the 22 members attending the St. Joseph's Catholic Women's League meeting of May 11. Guided by Grace Robertson who was a guest for the evening, each member was supplied with the makings for a corsage. Imaginations stretched and creations were rewarding.

The C.W.L. convention will be held on May 29 and 30 at Guelph and a few members are planning to attend the activities during the day.

President Jackie Nolan read some thoughts that would make a nice day for everyone so aptly expressed in the sayings "Good morning God" instead of "Good God, morning".

MRS. LOUELLA INGLES rummages through her purse to pay for some delicious cup cakes at the Knox Church Heather Club's bake sale Friday.

Badminton season ends

Members of the badminton club are planning a closing gathering and awards presentations.

McArthur, Mason off to convention

At an unusual Acton Hydro Commission meeting Friday morning, it was decided to send commissioner Bob McArthur and superintendent Doug Mason to be held in Niagara Falls, June 9, 10 and 11.

Chairman Wilf McEachern was forced to call off the regular meeting Thursday evening before it was started. There were not enough members present to form a quorum, and the meeting was cancelled. Mr. McEachern said it was the first time a meeting had been cancelled since he started on the commission, 13 years ago.
