

Milton Festival

M. Z. BENNETT students also won the Boys Unchanged Voices choir class defeating three other entries. The choir sang "Ring, Ring the Banjo".

SINGING "When the Caplin Comes In" this choir from Brookville won the Boys changed voices choir class.

THE WINNING triple duet choir was from the Howard Wigglesworth school in Georgetown. They were singing in the class for schools with less than 250 students.

GLEN WILLIAMS school students won the primary choir division for schools with less than 250 students. They sang "Two Kites and a Rain Cloud."

THE JUNIOR CHOIR division for schools with less than 250 students was won by Percy Merry Public School in Milton. They sang "Sing a Rainbow".

Milton. The choir sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and a piece of their own choice.

Robert Little for the cup.