

Visits, church U.C.W. in news

by Mrs. R. Shorthill Sr.
Visits church
 Mrs. Joyce Clarke was able to return home following surgery and is convalescing. Mrs. Dick Shorthill joined Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson on a trip to London to visit Mr. Thompson's two sisters. We're sorry to hear Mr. James Leitch is ill in hospital also Mr. Mervin White. Hopefully they will have a good recovery soon.

U.C.W. meeting
 The U.C.W. meeting was on Tuesday evening at the home of Marilyn Linstead, Doreen LaRose, the president, opened with a suitable thought. Sheila Stiles gave a very thought-searching devotion. She stressed the influence of parents on the lives of their family. Little we realize how some act or words of ours remain in the minds of our children all their lives. Often an influence for good or the reverse results.

Eileen McEnery read the minutes and the usual discussion followed. The U.C.W. will take the service July 11. Alma Sinclair gave a report on the Presbyterian at Laurel to which she was the delegate. Aug. 1 weekend there will be a bake sale on the Friday at 4 p.m. Proceeds will be for relief of stricken countries.

There will be no meetings in July and August.

Mrs. Clare Burt showed slides and offered a commentary on her recent visit in China. Lunch was served by Jessie Madill and Willa Shorthill.

Visiting
 I had a pleasant chat with Bill McEnery one morning. Bill and Cheryl with daughter Tanya are visiting parental homes here and in Georgetown as well as sister Carolyn and Bernie Gruehler in Acton. They have their home in Edmonton. Bill is a historian who is very interested in all about the McEnery history.

Ebenezer
Surprise

the news

By Mrs. Ron McLean
 Communion was observed at Ebenezer on Sunday. The junior choir sang "Jesus met the woman at the well" with Jay Kitching as soloist.

Rev. R. Finley's sermon topic was "Earth to Heaven". When Jesus preached in the synagogue, he had a controlled situation. Some of his hearers didn't care for what He said about being the son of God. When Jesus preached on the lakeshore, the crowds were so many, He had to get into a boat to speak to them.

The word parable means thrown together, taking an earthly experience and comparing it to heaven. When Jesus stood before the crowd, He had to be brief, to the point and picturesque. When you speak of abstract things, people soon forget. When Jesus spoke of taking His body and blood, they would remember.

Visits
 Earl and Mildred Ward visited his sister in Brampton on Sunday.

The family of Ronald and Isobel McLean surprised them with a barbecue party, in honor of their 35th wedding anniversary.

The Sunday School picnic is planned for June 27.

Barbecue
 A good crowd attended Knox Presbyterian Church picnic on Sunday afternoon. It was an outdoor barbecue and cook-out at the home of Mrs. Allen Walma. The children had fun with races and games. The winners of the different age groups, beginning with Kindergarten were: Heidi Schosch, Ann Wilcox, Andy Morrison, David Jackson and Carol Stewart; wheelbarrow races, Heidi Schosch and Jeff Jackson, David Jackson and Andy Morrison, Karen Jackson and Flora Stewart, Mark Jackson and Richard Wilcox; three-legged races, Heidi Schosch

Congratulations
 Congratulations are extended to Paul and Donna Metcalfe, who are celebrating their seventh wedding anniversary June 14. Donna delivered the speech to the track and field competitions and winners last week at G.D.H.S. She and Mrs. Cosgrove have been their coaches the past year and she commended them on their fine sportsmanship.

Ireland
 Mr. Michael Dunton has returned from a six weeks visit to his native Ireland in the southern area. His relatives live in that part of the country, and he was visiting them and viewing out the conditions there which in no way resemble the troubled area.

Funeral
 The funeral of the late Wm. Rogers took place last Wednesday in Guelph. Mr. Rogers had been a life-long resident of Ballinafad area and had reached a goodly age.

Mrs. Lillian Shortill is moving out to live with her mother here at Ballinafad. She has been in residence in an apt. for a number of years having recently been office manager at Queen St. Mental Centre Toronto but had been with the govt. Farm Tax program previously. She has an A.M.C.T. degree and will be Deputy Clerk of Erin Township for a two month's trial.

Church
 The sacrament of Holy Communion was administered at service Sunday. The attendance was low for the event. A worship thought was "Let us search and try our ways and turn again to the Lord. Let us lift up our hearts with our hands unto God in the Heavens."

Services are planned for July except for July 4—no service.
 Picnic—June 27.

Silverwood

Strange balloons still mysteries

By Mrs. Alicia Scott
 Silverwood W. I. held their June meeting at the Ontario Agricultural Museum at Kelso June 10.

Thirteen members answered the roll call naming a foreign food used here.

The minutes of May meeting were read and adopted and financial report given.

June 19 is Senior Citizens week and the major residents are having a garden party on that date and would like help from W. I. members such as baking.

An invitation was received to attend the opening of the Adult mentally retarded home, "Countryside" on June 20 at one p.m. Trafalgar Road.

The secretary-treasurer is instructed to send $10 to the district secretary for the fall luncheon to celebrate 75 years of W. I. work.

The members were asked to save stamps and hand them in this fall as a special project.

Annual picnic will be at Smallwood acres, Acton.

Project history
 Mrs. Margaret Campbell was convener for Agriculture and Industries and Mr. Robert Carbert entertained us with the history of the project. This was the first year of putting artifacts in that tell the story of evolution in agriculture from 1857-1967. It is a picture of country crossroads with working saw mill and blacksmith shop. Ninety-two acres are set aside to complete this agriculture setting. In 1966 the government bought artifacts belonging to the Mathews family. Thirty-one students are working there for the summer.

After the tour of interesting things members had their lunch and left for home.

Strange balloons
 Recently Alicia Scott spotted two balloons caught in a thorn bush behind their property and with the help of Susan Bailey brought them out. There had been four. Two were deflated and two left tied together with nylon string. Two were about the size of basket balls and were printed Campbell Wentworth. It's a mystery!

Mrs. Bess Scott, Vancouver Island and Mrs. Marjorie Barkley, Calgary, were visitors with Mrs. Margaret Campbell recently.

Golden Anniversary
 Sat. June 12 was Golden Wedding day for Alicia and Harry Scott. It was intended to be very quiet as Mr. Scott's health is not good.

Many friends and neighbours found out and dropped in to wish the Scotts many more years together. Mr. Julian Reed M.P.P. called and presented the Scotts with a beautiful plaque and wished them many more years of health and happiness on behalf of the Government of Ontario signed by William G. Davis, Premier of Ontario.

and Jeff Jackson, Andy Morrison and David Jackson; four-legged race, Carol Stewart, Flora Stewart and Karen Pankratz; sack races, Sharon Conley, Karen Jackson, David Jackson and Carol Stewart. To finish up the games, three teams participated in a scavenger hunt.

Camping trip
 On Friday, June 4, the Scouts went camping. They met at 5.30 at Ken Stubbington's farm, and then backpacked a mile west and camped along the Eramosa river. After setting up camp, everyone enjoyed a wiener roast. On Saturday they practiced campcrafts, by building a Chippewa kitchen. The rest of the day was spent swimming, fishing and hiking. Sunday morning everyone hiked three miles to attend services at Ospringle Church. Eleven scouts, two leaders, and one resource man attended this camp. Skills learned at this camp go towards the Adventuring badge.

Wedding bells
 Congratulations to Patti Ellis and Alex Duffield who were married Saturday June 12, at 4.30 p.m. in Knox Presbyterian Church, Ospringle. Patti is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis and Alex is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duffield. The bride's attendants were her two sisters Judy and Cathy, and the groom's sister Joan. Flower girl was Jody Izatt, a cousin, and the ring bearer was Philip VanManen. John Mochrie was best man, and the ushers were Steven Ellis and Jim Boles.

Accused rapists appear in court

Four men from an Indian reserve in Lake Simcoe charged with raping an 18-year-old Acton girl on April 26 appeared briefly in provincial court in Milton last Wednesday.

Judge William Sharpe remanded the accused until June 23 at which time a trial date is to be set.

The charges were laid against the men from the Georgina Island Indian reserve following an early morning incident which occurred in the Nassagaweya area of Milton. Constable Terry Devine of Milton OPP is handling the investigation.

Fire destroys Reed's tractor

Sunday night Julian Reed M.P.P. found things can get hot outside the House of Commons as well as inside.

A tractor on his Norval farm caught fire, and was quickly put out by Georgetown firefighters.
