

Whittaker - Bristow take communion at wedding

St. Alban's Anglican church pews were decorated alternately with white bows and sprays of pink sweetheart roses and the altar with long-stemmed pink roses and fuchsia mums for the exchanging of wedding vows of Bonnie Maureen Bristow and David William Whittaker on May 28.

The Rev. Laurie Duby, assisted by the Rev. Len Ewing, officiated at the candlelight, double ring ceremony, including nuptial eucharist. Mrs. Betty Oakes played the organ while Les Duby was the soloist. He sang Wedding Song and We've Only Just Begun. During the communion, the choir sang Love One Another.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Bristow, 128 Elizabeth Dr. The groom, of 859 James Street, Woodstock, is the son of Mrs. Sylvia Malpass of Herne Bay, Kent, England, and Desmond Whittaker of Hamburg, Germany. The groom is an employee of the Bank of Montreal.

Bridal gown
Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a gown of Quiana jersey. The A-line style dress had long lily-point sleeves with pearl detail on the bodice insert. Her elbow-length tulle veil with small floral appliques was held in place with a Juliette cap with pearl details to match the gown. The bride carried a trailing bouquet of red roses, stephanotis and ferns.

Miss Diane Timbers, Vancouver, was the maid of honor. Mrs. Kathryn Mounstephen, Oshawa, Miss Barbara Pratt, Galt, and Miss Vicki Bristow, Acton, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Tracy Armo, Geraldton, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl. They wore A-line dresses of polyester satin with matching jackets. The maid of honor and flowergirl wore dresses of mini green while the other bridal attendants wore pink.

John Mounstephen, Oshawa, was the best man, with ushers Michael Whittaker, the groom's brother of London, England; Ian Marshall, Montreal, and Peter Scrivener, Ingersoll. Craig Sharpe of Burlington, Massachusetts, was the ring bearer.

Dinner, dance
At an evening dinner and dance held at the Royal Canadian Legion hall, the mother of the bride received for her daughter wearing a pale blue dress of polyester satin, with silver accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations to complement her outfit. Mrs. Cynthia Whittaker received for her step-son wearing her own wedding sari of cream background with gold brocade design and gold accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

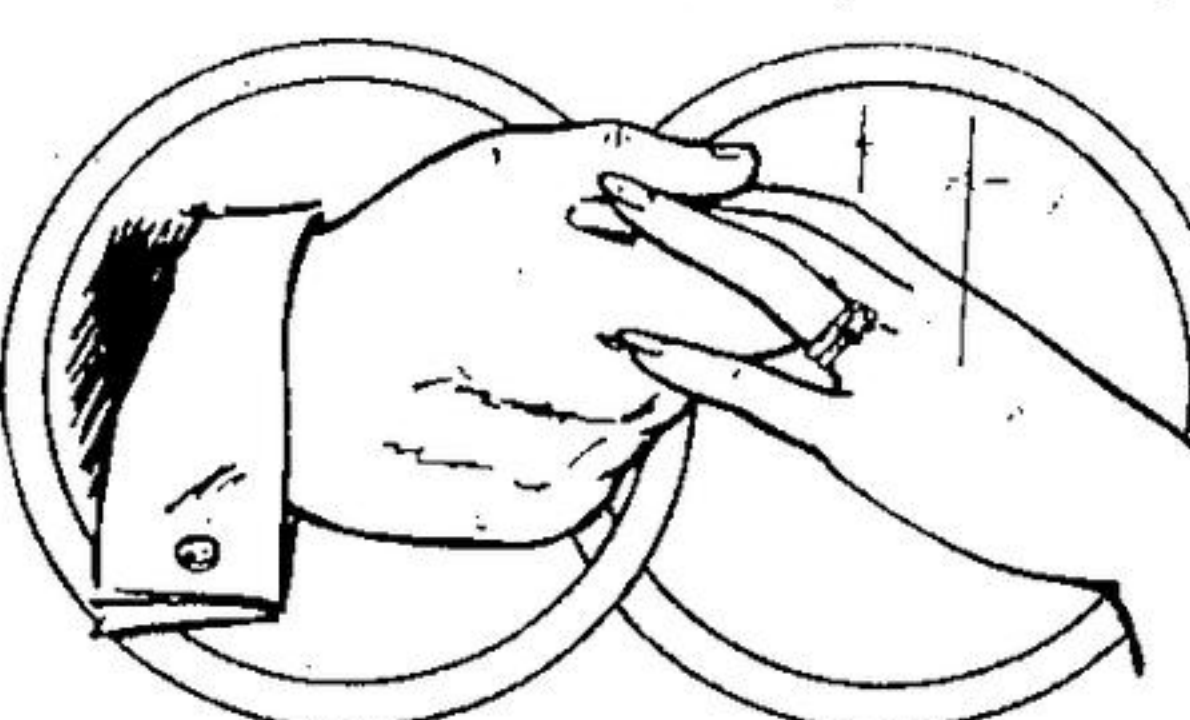

The flowers from the altar were given to the mothers, with the flowers from the pews given to the bride's godmothers, Mrs. Bea Anderson, Acton, and Mrs. Helen Noddle, Scarborough. The bride made her mother's and her sister's gowns and on the day of her wedding wore pearls, which were a gift from her new husband and an antique silver bracelet, a gift from her aunt, Mrs. Lois Bristow.

two sisters, are both out of their 80's, it is indeed something special. Mrs. Richard Leavens of Fonthill celebrated her 90th birthday on Sunday. Her sister, Mrs. Nelson Lambert of Acton turned 91-years-young in May.

It is not uncommon for a member of a family to reach her 90th birthday, but when

Butler - Jamieson wed in May 29 ceremony

Standards of yellow daisies and apricot pom pom mums decorated Ballinafad United church on May 29 for the marriage of Susan Nancy Jamieson and Earl Robert Butler.

The Rev. K. C. Johnston, from Barrie, officiated at the double ring ceremony with Mrs. Eileen McEnery as the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson, Ballinafad, and is a legal secretary. The groom, of 152 Alma St., Rockwood, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Butler, R. R. 2, Mount Forest and has his own business in Caledon. He is a licenced mechanic.

Bride's dress
Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown with a long lace-edged train. The bodice was decorated with lace flowers. Lace trim adorned the sheer sleeves from shoulder to cuff. The bride's sister-in-law made the gown. She carried a bouquet of apricot roses and yellow daisies with baby's breath. The bride wore the groom's grandmother's amethyst necklace and her Scottish grandmother's engagement ring.

The bride's sister, Marion Jamieson, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sheila Reid, sister of the bride, and the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Gayle Butler. They wore apricot polyester and brocade satin dresses with yellow lace, and white picture hats trimmed with yellow ribbon. The attendants' gowns were made by the bride and her mother.

They carried nosegays of yellow daisy mums and silver cross necklaces, gifts from the bride and groom.

Rick Lambert, a friend of the groom, was the best man. Paul Reid, the bride's brother-in-law, and Ross Butler, the groom's brother, were ushers. They wore brown tuxedos and lemon-colored shirts with brown trim.

Golf Course, the bride's mother wore a long navy and white gown with a mauve orchid corsage and white accessories. The groom's mother wore a pink floral sleeveless gown with sheer pink overcoat complemented with a yellow orchid corsage.

The three tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, was decorated with yellow roses. The tables were decorated with orange candles and yellow tulips.

Four showers
Before her wedding day, the bride was guest of honor at several festivities. Mrs. Gayle Butler held the first shower for her on April 8. On April 14, Mrs. Heather Lambert and Mrs. Shelley Lindsay held a pantry shower. At the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Bruce McPherson, friends and neighbors on the Second Line where the groom's family use to live, gathered on April 30 for a miscellaneous shower for the bride and groom. Another miscellaneous shower was held on May 7 at the home of Mrs. Eileen McEnery. Friends and neighbors attended.

Guests attended the wedding from Toronto, Oshawa, Cornwall and Barrie.

The bride's mother made her daughter's going away outfit, a light green polyester brocade satin long gown. They have postponed their honeymoon until the winter, when the bride and groom plan on travelling south. They are living in Rockwood.
