Family girls lead but falter

Family Cleaners team held its own for the first half of games against Gino's Automatics and Shakespeare, but failed to contain the opposition in the second half in Grand Valley Juvenile Ladies' Softball League action. Family players led Gino's 4-2 in the fourth inning of last Thursday's game at Guelph, but the Royal City squad brought in five runs in the last inning to win 8-4. Vicki Spear pitched for Acton and brought in one run.

Anna Swinkels also scored a single while teammate Laura Rayner counted for two runs. Family also led Shakespeare five to nothing on the no hit hurling of Anna Swinkels in the third inning. Shakespeare exploded in the fourth frame and went on to take the match 11-6. Vicki Spear and Carol Jordan each scored runs. Charmaine Bigelow counted a single in the opening inning and Lisa Near finished Acton's scoring with a run in the sixth.

DEBRA GEBERLEIN splashes away in the 100 metre back stroke at the Halton Hills swim meet held at the Acton pool Saturday.

Gail's girls route Hornby

Gail's Gulf peewee girls' "A" team routed Hornby 29-13 here Monday. The Acton team took an 11-five lead in the first inning and never looked back. Barbara Wilson hurled for the "A" squad. Tricia Adams was the losing pitcher. Patty McClure, Tina Gunn, Barb Wilson and Connie McCrystal hit two homers each for Acton while Joanne van der Eyken got a single homerun. Hornby's Cheri Wells and Kathy Galbraith connected for homers for the visitors.

Pirates edge

The Pirates edged the Orioles 5-4 in house league action Monday at M. Z. Bennett. Janet Ager pitched for the winners and added a run to the Pirates' efforts. Kim Barber connected for a homer for the winners. Gaynor Jenkinson and Lisa Cadenhead also got singles for the Pirates. Orioles led Pirates three to one in the second inning on the strength of Tina Horley's homer which combined with Linda Paton and Nancy van der Eyken's single runs. Anne McCord added a homer in the fourth inning.
