Ballinfad

Storm, parties, visits

By Mrs. R. Shortill Sr.
A farewell neighbours' party was held one night last week for Mr. and Mrs. Bob Matthews and family. They have moved from their home here to Glen Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Ian McCallum have moved here into the Matthews' home. They have two young girls and we extend a warm welcome to them.

Picnic
The outdoor service and family picnic was held on Sunday at the Snow and Schwarz homes.

have been entertaining Mary's parents from London, showing them around Ontario. The Hols will be moving back to England soon.

Bad storm
The bad storm Saturday night hit Ballinfad with a vengeance—for about five minutes, destroying several of the gardens and breaking trees with wind and hail.

Mr. Doug Usher took part in the golf tournament down Oakville way on Saturday.

The school children are free early this year but most of the teachers will be carrying on until the thirtieth.

Callers on Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Madills included Mrs. Edna Robertson of Fergus, Mrs. Hattie Price, Mrs. Betty Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Skioch and Mrs. Eleanor (Cook) Bowers and daughter of Santiago. Eleanor was a former neighbour of the Madills.

Miss Patricia Pearse of G.H.S. who lives here in an apt. will be leaving for Huntsville to help her father who runs a boys' camp there so she will have a busy summer.

Mrs. Irene Hancock has been able to return home from hospital.

Other of the teachers who live around here will be busy in their gardens and will be entertaining their folks.

Wee Tracy Shortill spent Sunday with her grandparents Dick and Ruth Shortill.

Churchill

Picnic at park

by Mrs. Fred MacArthur
Churchill Sunday School and congregational picnic was held last Sunday after church service when Mr. Clarence Denny drove his bus to Elora Gorge park taking all he could with him. God's Kids joined with the crowd later. A sing song was enjoyed by all on the bus going and returning home, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Anderson and Mr. Ralph McKeown on the ukelele.

Swimming and races were enjoyed. The winners for the races were as follows: six years and younger Rychi McKeown, John Paulstrup; girls nine to 11 Juliann Turner, Lillian Woldie, and Jenell Holder; boys 9 to 11 Ryan Bonnell, David McFadden, under 14, David Turner, Lee John Bonnell; young women, Erika; young men Henk Wicker, Paul Bannon; wheelchair race Lee John, David, Kim and Paul; three-legged race Juliann Turner and Jenell Holder; egg throwing Eleanor and Jim McFadden; hit the nail Leanne McFadden. On the way home they came by Guelph dam. Some had not seen it before.

Lunch was served and a happy time was spent.
Reunion
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson and Mrs. Charles Plouffe Sr. of Ballinfad attended the Naylor reunion at Springbank park at London on Saturday.
