

Peewee girl teams jostle for places

Peewee girls' A and B teams met for the last time in regular season play Monday, with Gail's Gulf A team taking the game and closing in on second spot in the final standings.

The As won the third game against the Bs by a 51-17 margin. As took a previous game 21-10 following the Bs' 19-13 win near the beginning of the season.

CPS, sponsored by the Chicken and Pizza Spot (CPS), have a one game advantage on the As. The two teams are tied for second spot, trailing league leading Lowville.

The As scored 18 runs in the first inning and though the Bs showed signs of coming up later in the game, they could not reverse what had started in the opening frame.

Patty McClure was on the mound for the As, and Sharon Turkosz for the Bs.

Joanne van der Eyken led the As with two home runs. Connie Youmans, Janet Britton and Barb Wilson also con-ected for As' homers.

Place

The CPS Bs' Kelly White placed three home runs on the score sheet while teammates Tracey Clarke and pitcher Sharon Turkosz hit single homers.

The same two hurlers were on the mounds when the As defeated the Bs last Saturday. The As' Patty McClure also added a home run to her winning efforts in the game.

Barb Wilson and Janet Britton also collected single homers for Gail's girls.

The Bs' second baseman, Kelly White connected for two homers.

In other peewee action Patty McClure started hurling for the As against Limehouse on June 25, but Barb Wilson took over for the last four innings in the As' 19-13 loss at Limehouse.

Marion Case was the winning pitcher, and shortstop Sherry Wilson blasted a home run for the Limehouse squad.

PEEWEE B BATTER Carol Chaisson slugs the ball towards left field to earn a run for her team against the Peewee girls A team Monday. The As went on to win the match from the Bs by 51-17.

The game was the second of three season games taken by the As. The Bs won the first, early in the season. Peewee As' catcher Dayna George and umpire Vince Thornton watch the play.

Van's fattens its lead Cleaners win - at last

Family Cleaners ball club finally put it altogether Sunday afternoon for their first sweet victory on their ninth try in Acton Men's Softball Association action.

Halton Hills Electric became Cleaner's first victim when the final score in Prospect Park put them on the short end of the 11-0 bill.

In other action, Van's Welding increased its lead over second place Station Hotel and Halton Hills Electric to three points. Van's drubbed Station 19-8 in the first game of the day.

Blank

Halton Hills Catering hurler Ken Pilgrim blanked

Ledger's IGA in the first and last three innings while Catering scored a 9-6 win.

During last place Family's upset of electricians, the Cleaners scored seven big runs in the second frame while hurler Fred Archibald held the opposition scoreless.

Cleaners shortstop Al Green started the seven run onslaught with his first of two scores. Fred Archibald homered to be followed by Al Hall's run. Wally Ella, who walked home twice, made his first strides in that second inning. A three run flurry followed by Larry Frizel, Doug Vickery and Gene Yaworsky.

Yaworsky produced Cleaner's final run in the seventh frame. Right Fielder Ron Hachey also brought home a run, in the sixth.

Start

On the Electrician's side, Danny Allen and Bob Jarrett started the team scoring in the third frame. Steve Steeves added one score in the sixth. Garry Masters and John Duffield brought the mark up to six, after Allen got his second run of the game.

Most runs of the afternoon, 27, were generated in the Van's-Station match.

Left fielder Chris Tennant, Wes Jones and Ed Hiller each connected for three runs while shortstop Vince Thornton and second baseman Neil McKinnon blasted home a pair of runs. Teammates Gene Yaworsky, Neil McKinnon and Larry Kistener produced single runs. Art Lee, pitched the winner and also brought in one run for Van's.

Station led Van's 4-2 after the first inning on runs by pitcher Dave McMillan, his first of two, D. Archibald, and Jim Inglis. He also brought in a run in the second frame. John Dunn rounded out Station's scoring in the first inning.

Add

McMillan and Inglis each scored single runs in the second, but the team went blank for the next three innings. Shortstop Bruce Cooksley and Denzo Heights added runs in the sixth and seventh.

Halton Hills Catering edged IGA 9-6 on the hurling of Ken Pilgrim and the hitting of Terry Masales and Ray Graham who each counted for a pair. Pilgrim also brought in one run.

The teams were tied 3-3 in the third inning, however, Catering continued to add runs in the remaining frames, as IGA faltered. Danny O'Shea, Jim Whitmill, Bev Baker, Manfred Aps, and Bill Routledge produced single-counters for Catering.

Gord Stanbridge banded in two runs for IGA, but it was not enough to catch Catering. Catcher Gary Taillefer, Graham Show, and Fred Crawford each got single runs. John McKinnon got the team's last score in the fourth inning.

Arthur sparks to win as Ramblers falter

Acton Rambler's attack faltered at the same time as Arthur sparked to clinch a bantam exhibition lacrosse game 12-9 in the final period of play here Monday.

Ramblers led Arthur 4-3 at the end of the first period, and 8-6 after the second. Arthur rallied with a half-dozen goals to Acton's one in the final period.

At one point in the second period, Acton held an 8-4 lead over the visitors.

Peter Hurdle led the Rambler's scoring binge with four goals and one assist. Rick Miller, Mike Marshall, Rop Jackson, Jamie McMillan and Rick Poot each added single goals to Acton's tally.

Rambler goalie Paul Campbell and number three Don Brouillard got single assists as did Hurdle and Poot.

Arthur's big gun was Andy Morrison with five goals. Matt Coffey had a hat trick for the visitors.

Colonials try rural series

Rockwood Colonials of the Inter-County Fastball League are taking advantage of a break in schedule to plan an entry into the Ontario Rural Softball Association (ORSA).

Acton did not play in the penalty department, collecting 90 penalty minutes to 75.

The ORSA slate, during August and September, will probably be integrated with the Colonials' schedule.

Rockwood returns to action tonight at Fergus ball park in a game starting at 8:15 p.m. Saturday the Colonials will enter the Aberfoyle Ball Tournament.

Warriors' OT rally clips scrappy Rams

Rexdale Warriors rallied from a six goal deficit to edge Rams 16-14 in overtime during Ontario Lacrosse Association Junior "C" action Friday.

Rams have one opportunity, tomorrow night here against Mississauga Medics, to put some more win points between them and last place Orillia.

Either two or four points separate Rams and Orillia which meet Friday for the first time this season. Acton must beat Orillia, at least once, to keep alive its hopes of a playoff berth. The game is at Orillia.

Ram manager Dave McMillan says that Ron Turkosz, who was injured at Windsor two weeks ago, is not expected to dress prior to a week tomorrow when Acton hosts Huntsville.

Both Wade Knight and Ian

Campbell will miss Thursday's game against Mississauga because of suspensions received in the Rexdale game. Campbell, who has previously been given a one game suspension, will sit out two games and pay a $25 fine.

The two Acton players and Rexdale's John Dickson and Jeff Dolanore, who also got game misconducts, got tangled up in a scrap with 44 seconds to play in overtime.

At the end of the first period Rams led Rexdale 9-3, and threatened to run away with the game. However, the Acton players sat back in the second frame, then failed to score a goal, while Warrior forwards found the mark four times to close the gap to two goals.

Ram pair Bill Mathieson and George Artem each banded in triple counters and helped on four others.

Malton's Wayne Young fired a pair of markers for Acton, while Rick Van Fleet and goal tenders John DeCourcy and Doug Taylor were held to one assist each.

Warriors Roger Haskell, John Lintner and Randy Gillingham each got a pair of markers for Rexdale.

Squirt girls win twice

Olympia Drive-In Squirt girls brought their win total to nine in ten games by defeating both Limehouse and Glen Williams in Halton Rural ball action last week.

Squirt girls needed no home runs against the Glen on Dominion Day as they defeated the Glen girls at home ten to three.

Theresa Dunn hurled for Acton's two wins.

Susan Wilson scored the winning run in the third frame which was followed by six runs in the fourth.

Kim White, who started Acton pitching, Beverly Glenn and Susan Wilson scored two runs each for Olympia.

Cindy Hoskins and Kelly Codley gave the Glen a 2-0 lead in the first inning and teammate Laura Campbell added one in the second.

At Limehouse last Wednesday, the squirts managed 26 runs to two for the win. Teresa Dunn, Sally Briggs, Robin McClure and Susan Wilson collected home runs for Acton.

Limehouse's Lynda Thomson also produced a homer in the game. The Olympia Drive-In team has hit 184 runs in ten games against 28 runs.

After Rexdale tied the match up in the final period, Acton regained the lead with a minute and a half to play in regulation time. Rexdale, however, sent the teams into overtime with a tie goal at the 19:42 mark.

Steve Wilson's fourth goal of the game put Rams again into a one goal lead, but Rexdale stormed back with three straight goals to take the game.

Wilson was the game's leading scorer, but Kevin Marcoux's six assists, was also tops for the match. Marcoux also put away a pair of goals.

Cougars fight T-ball Lions

Cougars fought Lions for a 20-18 win in T-ball action at Glenlea Park on Dominion Day.

Arnaud Ng engineered a key triple play for Cougars in the final inning to seal a Lion comeback.

Glen Wright and David Paul led Cougars with five runs each, while Wayne Wright and Arnaud Ng con-ected for triples. Andrew McVeigh collected a pair while Christopher Lindsay and Susan Lindsay got singles.

Kelly Fitzgerald and Scott Brown blasted four runs for Lions. Jill Briggs, Craig Cadenhead and Chris Lewis produced triple runs. Kevin Brown hit a single run.

Leafs invite local players

Halton Hills will have two representatives at the Toronto Maple Leaf training camp this September.

Pete Marzo, formerly of Acton and who now lives at Gileph, has been on the Leaf's list for four years. Marzo, who'll probably try for a centre spot, scored 38 goals and 80 assists for the Boston University Terriers last season in the East Coast Athletic Conference.

Georgetown's Gary McFadyen, who was Leaf's third round choice in this year's overage draft, is the other player headed for the National Hockey League club. Last season he scored 40 goals for the Quebec Major Junior "A" League's Hull Festivals.

Pirates blast Orioles 14-6

Pirates broadsided the Orioles 14-6 last Wednesday in house league play at M. Z. Bennett park.

Pirates blasted the opposition by getting five runs in the second and third innings. Debbie Lumbers was the winning pitcher.

Jody Brown struck a home run in the third frame for Pirates and Rodine Blinn connected for runs on each of her four turns at bat. Gaynor Jenkinson got three while teammates Karen Jackson and Lisa Cadenhead banged in two each. Beverly Dawson and third baseman Kevin Brown got singles.

Kim Heaps led Orioles with four runs while Tracy Dunbar and Monica Schumeth each got singles.

Tigers slug

Tigers outslugged Jets 26-19 in T-ball action last Tuesday at Glenlea Park.

Steve Toyota, Jeff Jackson and Dave Haynes scored homers for the Tigers.

Kem Hagan replied with one home run for Jets.

Waterloo nips Family girls

Waterloo nipped Family Cleaners juveniles girls 4-3 in Grand Valley ball action here last Tuesday.

The visitors scored all four runs in the first inning and held on while the Family girls brought two runs in during the second frame, one in the third and threatened to tie the game.

Sue Paul was on the mound for Acton. Anna Swinkle and right fielder Vicki Spear brought home the second inning runs and Carol Jordan the third.

Blain scores

Fred Blain, of Acton, scored two goals to lead Georgetown Meteors to a 3-1 win in Inter-County Soccer League action against Brampton last Wednesday.
