

LABOR MINISTER John Munro

LABOR MINISTER John Munro speaks to the thousands of Ukrainians who attended a festival at Camp Weselka, Fourth Line, Halton Hills.

Munro heaps praise on fighting Ukrainians

Thousands of Canadian and U.S. Ukrainians gathered at the Ukrainian Youth camp, Fourth Line, Halton Hills, to hear Minister of Labor John Munro and to celebrate the 35th anniversary of the restoration of Ukrainian independence.

Munro said he thought Sunday was a very appropriate day for the celebration since Canada had celebrated its birthday just a few days before, the United States was celebrating its Bicentennial that day and the anniversary of heroic actions by many Ukrainians 35 years ago was June 30.

He said the three anniversaries or celebrations were symbols of Ukrainian, Canadian and American fights for freedom.

Munro said he and other government officials joined with the Ukrainians in celebrating with tremendous justification the Ukrainian people's fight for freedom.

Noting he has been privileged to attend many Ukrainian festivals in Canada, Munro declared Canada's Ukrainian community is unique in many ways.

He said the people's fight for freedom is always very clear and that they provide an excellent example for everyone is that Ukrainians don't take their freedom for granted. Munro added their example of not taking freedom for granted should inspire other Canadians who do.

He said the Ukrainian community can play a huge role in Canada's future and even help resolve some of the differences of opinion which have placed French and English speaking Canadians in a position of confrontation over bilingualism and air safety.

Munro said since Ukrainians have been able to maintain their own culture and keep their own language and really don't identify with either English or French Canadians they can prove to both groups by example that many cultures can live on and flourish in Canada.

He said Ukrainian Canadians can show French Canadians and other groups in the country they are just as much a part of Canada as the English Canadians.

The men's choir "Prometheus" and the women's choir "Dibrova" both sang a number of old Ukrainian songs praising the homeland and its heroes and the brass band "Baturyn" also entertained.

A number of speakers recounted the Ukraine's past struggles for the audience and also pledged to continue the fight for freedom from Russian rule.

The divine liturgy was celebrated in the morning by Bishop Isidore Borecky, head of the Ukrainian rite of the Catholic church.

BISHOP ISIDORE Borecky celebrated the divine liturgy for thousands of Ukrainians who attended the morning mass at the Ukrainian Camp, Fourth Line, Halton Hills.

Once a week street clean

Once a week cleaning is scheduled for Acton during the summer. Street cleaning is on a regular schedule and the whole town is covered in one day. Streets with curbs and gutters get the street sweeper. Other streets are flushed. Right after a rain is a good time to clean, the works staff says.

Two car collision

Two cars were involved in a collision at the corner of Queen and Acton Blvd. June 30. Drivers were Ronald Schmidt, 65 Main N., whose car has $300 damage and Fraser Spencer, Thornhill, with about $200 to his. One car stopped at the crosswalk when the accident happened.

The town worker who has the job of grass cutting for the summer had to stop work Tuesday morning to escort a frog safely across the road. Mission accomplished.
